On March 5, 2014, this Court extended the TRO until March 20, 2014. On March

(Dkt. 186.) Pursuant to the Order adopting the Magistrate Court’s Report and Recommendation, the FTC filed a Proposed Final Order for Judgment and Permanent Injunction with this Court (Dkt. 187), to which Defendants made no objection.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED AS FOLLOWS:

FINDINGS

The Court finds:

1. This is an action by the FTC instituted under Section 13(b) of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. § 53(b), and Section 814(a) of the FDCPA, 15 U.S.C. § 1692l(a). The Complaint seeks both permanent injunctive relief and equitable monetary relief for the Defendants' alleged deceptive acts or practices as alleged therein.
2. The FTC has the authority under Sections 13(b) of the FTC Act, and Section 814 of the FDCPA, to seek the relief it has requested, and the Complaint states a claim upon which relief can be granted against Defendants.
3. This Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this case and has jurisdiction over each Defendant pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331, 1337(a), and 1345, and 15 U.S.C. §§ 45(a), 53(b), and 1692l.
4. Venue in the Western District of New York is proper 28 U.S.C. §§ 1391(b) and (c), and 15 U.S.C. § 53(b).
5. The FTC is an independent agency of the United States Government created by statute. 15 U.S.C. §§ 41 et seq. The FTC is charged, inter alia, with enforcement of Section 5(a) of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. § 45(a), which prohibits unfair or deceptive acts or practices in or affecting commerce, and the FDCPA, 15 U.S.C. § 1692-1692p, which prohibits abusive, deceptive and unfair collection practices. The FTC is authorized to initiate federal district court proceedings, by its own attorneys, to enjoin violations of the FTC Act and the FDCPA, and to secure such equitable relief as may be appropriate in each case, including equitable monetary relief such as disgorgement, restitution, and rescission of contracts. 15 U.S.C. §§ 53(b), 56(a)(2)(A), 56(a)(2)(B), 57b, and 1692l(a).

6. The activities of the Defendants, as alleged in the Complaint, are in or affecting commerce, as defined in Section 4 of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. § 44.
7. Defendants are “debt collectors” collecting “debts” as those terms are defined in section 803 of the FDCPA, 15 U.S.C. § 1692a.
8. Defendants have received revenues of at least $10,852,396 as a direct result of their violations of Section 5 of the FTC Act and the FDCPA.
9. Defendants have operated as a common enterprise in engaging in violations of the FTC Act and the FDCPA. Defendants have shared office space and employees, have been commonly controlled, and have participated in a common scheme to deceive and abuse consumers.
10. At all times material to the Complaint, acting alone or in concert with others, Defendant William Moses formulated, directed, controlled, or participated in the acts and practices of the Corporate Defendants. He also had actual or constructive knowledge of the violative acts and practices set forth in findings 12-16 below. Acting alone or in concert with others, he directly participated in and had actual or constructive knowledge of the deceptive and abusive acts and practices of the Corporate Defendants, including the acts and practices alleged in the FTC’s Complaint, and thus is jointly and severally liable for these acts and practices.
11. At all times material to the Complaint, acting alone or in concert with others, Defendant Mark Briandi formulated, directed, controlled, or participated in the acts and practices of the Corporate Defendants. He also had actual or constructive knowledge of the violative acts and practices set forth in findings 12-16 below. Acting alone or in concert with others, he directly participated in and had actual or constructive knowledge of the deceptive and abusive acts and practices of the Corporate Defendants, including the acts and practices alleged in the FTC's Complaint, and thus is jointly and severally liable for these acts and practices.

12. In numerous instances in connection with the collection of purported consumer debts, Defendants have represented, directly or indirectly, expressly or by implication, that: (a) consumers have committed check fraud or another criminal act; (b) Defendants are going to have a consumer arrested or imprisoned; (c) Defendants are affiliated with government entities, including law enforcement agencies; (d) Defendants have filed, or intend to file, a lawsuit against a consumer; or (e) Defendants are going to garnish a consumer's wages, levy a consumer's bank account, or seize a consumer's property. In truth and in fact, in numerous instances: (a) consumers have not committed check fraud or another criminal act; (b) Defendants cannot have the consumer arrested or imprisoned; (c) Defendants are not affiliated with any government entities; (d) Defendants have not filed, and do not have the authority or intention to file at the time, a lawsuit against the consumer; and (e) non-payment of a purported debt will not result in the garnishment, attachment, or seizure of the consumer's wages or property. Therefore, Defendants' representations were false or misleading, and constitute deceptive acts or practices in violation of Section 5(a) of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. § 45(a).

13. In numerous instances, during telephone calls to consumers who previously had told Defendants that they did not owe the debt that Defendants were attempting to collect, Defendants have represented, directly or indirectly, expressly or by implication, that the consumers owed the debt. In truth and in fact, in numerous instances, Defendants have not had a reasonable basis for these representations at the time the representations were made. Therefore, Defendants' representations constitute deceptive acts or practices in violation of section 5(a) of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. § 45(a).
14. In numerous instances, in connection with the collection of debts, Defendants, directly or indirectly, have used false, deceptive, or misleading representations or means, including, but not limited to: (a) falsely representing that the Defendants are affiliated with the United States or any State, including government law enforcement agencies; (b) falsely representing the character, amount, or legal status of a debt, in violation of Section 807(2) of the FDCPA, 15 U.S.C. § 1692e(2); (c) falsely representing or implying that non-payment of a debt will result in the arrest or imprisonment of a person or the seizure, garnishment, or attachment of a person's property or wages, when such action is not lawful or when Defendants have no intention of taking such action; (d) threatening to take action that is not lawful or that Defendants do not intend to take, such as filing a lawsuit, in violation of Section 807(5) of the FDCPA, 15 U.S.C. § 1692e(5); (e) falsely representing or implying that a consumer has committed any crime or other conduct in order to disgrace the consumer; (f) using a false representation or deceptive means to collect or attempt to collect a debt, or to obtain information concerning a consumer; and (g) failing to disclose in the initial communication with a consumer that Defendants are debt collectors attempting to collect a debt and that any information obtained will be used for that purpose, in violation of Sections 807(1-2, 4-5, 7, 10-11) of the FDCPA, 15 U.S.C. § 1692e(1-2, 4-5, 7, 10-11).

15. On numerous occasions, in connection with the collection of debts, Defendants have communicated with third parties for purposes other than acquiring location information about a consumer, without having obtained directly the prior consent of the consumer or the express permission of a court of competent jurisdiction, and when not reasonably necessary to effectuate a post judgment judicial remedy, in violation of Section 805(b) of the FDCPA, 15 U.S.C. § 1692c(b).
16. In numerous instances, in connection with the collection of debts, Defendants have failed to provide consumers, either in the initial communication with a consumer or in a written notice sent within five days after the initial communication, with statutorily-required information about the debt and the right to dispute the debt in violation of Section 809(a) of the FDCPA, 15 U.S.C. § 1692g(a).
17. The Relief Defendant, Empowered Racing, has received, directly or indirectly, funds and other assets from Defendants in the amount of $92,000 that are traceable to funds obtained from consumers through Defendants' deceptive, abusive, and unlawful acts and practices described herein.

18. Relief Defendant, Empowered Racing, is not a bona fide purchaser with legal and equitable title to funds or other assets obtained from consumers through Defendants' deceptive, abusive, and unlawful acts and practices described herein. Relief Defendant will be unjustly enriched if it is not required to disgorge the funds or the value of the benefit it received as a result of Defendants' deceptive, abusive, and unlawful acts and practices.
19. Relief Defendant, Empowered Racing, holds funds and assets in constructive trust for the benefit of consumers harmed by Defendants.
20. Based on the record before this Court, the Court finds that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact, and the FTC is entitled to judgment as a matter of law against Defendants pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 56.
21. Section 13(b) of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. § 53(b), empowers this Court to issue injunctive and other relief against violations of the FTC Act and, in the exercise of its equitable jurisdiction, to award redress and restitution to remedy the injury to consumers, to order disgorgement of profits resulting from Defendants' unlawful acts or practices, and issue other ancillary equitable relief.
22. The danger of future violations by Defendants justifies the issuance of injunctive relief. Specifically, it is proper in this case to issue a permanent injunction that:
(a) permanently bans Defendants from engaging in debt collection activities or assisting others who do; (b) prohibits Defendants from misrepresenting any fact material to a consumer's decision to purchase financial-related products or services; (c) prohibits Defendants from disclosing, using, or benefitting from customer information of any person that any Defendant obtained before the entry of this Order in connection with the provision of debt collection products or services; and (d) provides such other ancillary relief as is necessary to assist the FTC and the Court in monitoring Defendants' compliance with such a permanent injunction.

23. Defendants have received at least $10,852,396 that was derived unlawfully from payments by consumers as a direct result of Defendants' violations of Section 5(a) of the FTC Act and the FDCPA.
24. It is proper in this case to enter a monetary judgment in the amount of $10,852,396 against Defendants, jointly and severally, as equitable monetary relief in the form of restitution, rescission of contracts, and disgorgement for their violations of Section 5 of the FTC Act and the FDCPA.
25. Because these funds were fraudulently derived, Defendants did not acquire good title to these funds. Accordingly, Defendants held those funds in constructive trust on behalf of the injured consumers.
26. This action and the relief awarded herein are in addition to, and not in lieu of, other remedies that may be provided by law, including both civil and criminal remedies.
27. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 65(d) the provisions of this Order are binding upon each Defendant, their successors and assigns, and their officers, agents, employees, and attorneys, and upon those persons or entities in active concert or participation with them who receive actual notice of this Order by personal service or otherwise.
28. Entry of this Order is in the public interest.
