(Whereupon, the proceeding began at 3:15 p.m. and arguments were made by counsel on the record.)

(TIME 3:37 P.M)

14:13:03 6 THE CLERK: We are back on the record, your 14:13:05 7 Honor.

14:13:05 8 THE COURT: Thank you very much, counsel.
14:13:07 9 Thank you very much for a thorough argument. I am
14:13:09 10 prepared to issue my decision. Title 42 of U.S. Code 14:13:17 11 Section 405(g) grants jurisdiction to district courts to 14:13:22 12 hear claims based on the denial of social security
14:13:26 13 benefits. Section 405(g) provides that the district
14:13:40 14 court shall have the power to enter, upon the pleadings
14:13:43 15 and transcript of the record, a judgment affirming, 14:13:46 16 modifying or reversing a decision of the Commissioner of 14:13:49 17 Social Security with or without remanding the cause for 14:13:53 18 a rehearing. It directs when considering claims, a 14:13:56 19 court must consider the findings of fact made by the 14:14:01 20 Commissioner provided that such findings are supported 14:14:26 21 by substantial evidence in the record. Substantial
14:14:29 22 evidence is defined as more than a mere scintilla. It 14:14:41 23 means such relevant evidence as a reasonable mind might 14:14:44 24 accept as adequate to support a conclusion. To 14:14:48 25 determine whether substantial evidence supports the

M. DENNIS VS. COMMISSIONER OF SOCIAL SECURITY

1
 14:15:01 2 Commissioner's finding, the Court must examine the 14:15:03 3 entire record, including contradictory evidence and 14:15:07 4 evidence from which conflicting inferences can be drawn.
 14:15:10 5 Section 405(g) limits the Court's review to two 14:15:23 6 inquires: Whether the Commissioner's findings were 14:15:26 7 supported by substantial evidence in the record; and 14:15:29 8 whether the Commissioner's conclusions are based upon an 14:15:32 9 erroneous legal standard.

14:15:34 10 A person is disabled for the purposes of SSI
 14:15:37 11 and Disability benefits if he or she is unable to engage 14:15:41 12 in any substantial gainful activity by reason of any 14:15:55 13 medically determinable physical or mental impairment 14:15:59 14 which can be expected to result in death or which has 14:16:02 15 lasted or can be expected to last for a continuous 14:16:05 16 period of not less than 12 months.

14:16:07 17 In assessing whether a claimant is disabled,
 14:16:10 18 the ALJ must employ a five-step sequential analysis set 14:18:44 19 out in Berry v. Schweiker, 675 F. 2d 464, 477, Second 14:18:51 20 Circuit 1982.

14:18:52 21 The claimant bears the burden of proving his 14:18:57 22 or her case at steps one through four; and at step five, 14:19:10 23 the burden shifts to the Commissioner to show there is 14:19:13 24 other gainful work in the national economy which the 14:19:16 25 claimant could perform.

1 M. DENNIS VS. COMMISSIONER OF SOCIAL SECURITY

14:19:19 2 In this case, the first point that the 14:19:22 3 claimant raises in his brief is that the ALJ erred in 14:19:26 4 coming to a highly specific ALC based on the vague
14:19:31 5 opinion of Dr. Miller. One of the issues he brings up 14:19:45 6 is that Dr. Miller, in her review, did not take a look 14:19:48 7 at the MRI results that were produced in October of 2015
14:19:53 8 and she made her examination in 2016. I note that there
14:20:06 9 is a case from the Second Circuit, it's an unpublished
14:20:10 10 decision called Wright, W-r-i-g-h-t, v. Berryhill, 2017
14:20:25 11 Westlaw 1379389 at page 1, Second Circuit, April 14, 14:20:35 12 2017. And the Court wrote, "Similarly, it was not 14:20:37 13 reversible error for the ALJ also to give great weight
14:20:42 14 to Dr. Wassef's opinion. Dr. Wassef personally examined 14:21:00 15 the Plaintiff and reached conclusions consistent with 14:21:03 16 the objective medical evidence. Given these 14:21:05 17 circumstances, the facts that Dr. Wassef's specialty is 14:21:10 18 pediatrics, and his review did not include the 14:21:13 19 Plaintiff's MRI's results do not preclude the ALJ from 14:21:27 20 assigning Dr. Wassef's opinion significant weight, 14:21:29 21 especially in light of the other evidence in the 14:21:32 22 record." In this case here, the MRI results are not 14:21:39 23 astounding. As I mentioned earlier, at page 276 in the 14:21:43 24 record, the impression portion states (1) unremarkable
14:21:47 25 MRI of the cervical spine; (2) mild to moderate

1 M. DENNIS VS. COMMISSIONER OF SOCIAL SECURITY

14:21:52 2 degenerative changes at the L3-L4, L4-L5 and L5-S1
14:22:00 3 levels.

14:22:01 4 So, based on the authority in Wright, I
14:22:06 5 don't think it was error for the ALJ to credit Dr.
14:22:12 6 Miller's opinion and give it great weight. Further, the 14:22:17 7 other highly specified portions seem to rely in part on 14:22:21 8 Dr. Ruiz's medical source statement at pages 603 through 14:22:30 9 611 of the record in which he commented on the 14:22:35 10 Plaintiff's ability to climb ramps and stairs, 14:22:38 11 balancing, stooping, kneeling, crouching, crawling. He 14:22:43 12 opined concerning environmental limitations. And in the 14:22:47 13 case of the ALJ's residual functioning capacity, the ALJ 14:22:53 14 went a little further than Dr. Ruiz did, and that is 14:22:56 15 probably why the ALJ did not give full weight to Dr.
14:23:02 16 Ruiz's statement. So based on those things, I think 14:23:05 17 that the ALJ's determination of Dr. Miller's opinion and 14:23:09 18 his RFC do have substantial support in the record.

14:23:13 19 With regard to the stress issue, Plaintiff 14:23:16 20 states that the ALJ erred in improperly accounting for 14:23:21 21 stress. And as I noted earlier in Judge Wolford's case, 14:23:24 22 Herb v. The Commissioner of Social Security, 366 F. Sup
14:23:30 23 3d 441, Western District of New York 2019, she wrote, 14:23:35 24 "The Court is cognizant that even without explicitly 14:23:53 25 referencing a stress limitation, an RFC determination

1 M. DENNIS VS. COMMISSIONER OF SOCIAL SECURITY

14:24:04 2 may adequately account for a claimant's stress related 14:24:08 3 limitations. For example, an RFC limiting a Plaintiff
14:24:12 4 to occasional interaction with coworkers in the public 14:24:15 5 and to the performance of simple routine tasks may 14:24:19 6 account for the Plaintiff's stress-related limitations."
14:24:22 7 And then she goes on to cite other cases Ridosh v.
14:24:28 8 Berryhill, 2018 Westlaw 617, 1713, a 2018 Western 14:24:36 9 District of New York case on November 26. See also 14:24:44 10 Moxham v. The Commissioner, 2018 Westlaw 1175210, at 14:24:49 11 page 10, a Northern District of New York, March 5, 2018
14:24:53 12 case, in which that court found limitation to simple 14:24:57 13 tasks and instructions, decisions on simple work-related 14:25:00 14 matters, and frequent interaction with others adequately 14:25:04 15 accounted for the Plaintiff's stress-related 14:25:07 16 limitations. And further cited Cosme, C-o-s-m-e, v.
14:25:13 17 Colvin, 2016 Westlaw 4154280 at page 13, Western 14:25:32 18 District of New York, August 5, 2016, in which that 14:25:36 19 court wrote, "The RFC, which explicitly required 14:25:40 20 positions in unskilled work which did not require any 14:25:56 21 contact with coworkers or the public and only limited 14:26:20 22 contact with supervisors adequately accounted for any 14:26:25 23 limitations dealing with stress." In this case here, 14:26:30 24 with regard to stress, the ALJ limited the claimant to 14:26:34 25 simple routine tasks with no more than occasional

1 M. DENNIS VS. COMMISSIONER OF SOCIAL SECURITY

14:26:39 2 workplace changes. He should have no more than 14:26:42 3 occasional interaction with coworkers, supervisors and 14:26:55 4 the public." And counsel mentioned that the Plaintiff 14:26:59 5 testified concerning panic attacks, but as the 14:27:02 6 Commissioner's attorney pointed out, those are not 14:27:05 7 substantiated in the record, so we know that the ALJ did 14:27:09 8 listen to the testimony of the Complainant and where it 14:27:12 9 was verified, gave the Complainant additional 14:27:16 10 restrictions. And where he found that it was not 14:27:19 11 verified, did not.

14:27:20 12 Overall then, I think that the 14:27:22 13 Commissioner's residual functional capacity decision is 14:27:26 14 supported by substantial evidence in the record. And,
14:27:29 15 therefore, I grant the Commissioner's motion for 14:27:31 16 judgment on the pleadings and deny the Plaintiff's 14:27:34 17 motion on judgment on the pleadings. I direct the 14:27:36 18 Commissioner to draft an settle and order with 14:27:42 19 Plaintiff's counsel. And attach and reference a copy of 14:27:44 20 the transcript just of this portion of the decision.

14:27:47 21 Thank you very much, counsel. I also direct 14:27:50 22 the clerk to enter judgment for the Commissioner and 14:27:52 23 close the case.

14:27:57 24 MR. ROONEY: Thank you.

14:27:58 25 MS. FERNANDEZ: Thank you.
