

BEFORE THE
UNITED STATES JUDICIAL PANEL ON MULTIDISTRICT LITIGATION

IN RE: GOOGLE PRIVACY POLICY
LITIGATION

MDL Docket No. _____

REASONS WHY ORAL ARGUMENT SHOULD BE HEARD

Pursuant to Rule 16.1(b) of the Rules of Procedure of the Judicial Panel on Multidistrict Litigation (the “Panel”), Plaintiff Nicholas Anderson submits this oral argument request in support of his Motion for Transfer of Related Actions to the Northern District of California for Coordinated or Consolidated Pretrial Proceedings Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1407 with respect to In Re: Google Privacy Policy Litigation. Oral argument should be heard so that the parties can update the Panel on any events that have occurred since the conclusion of the briefing, emphasize the key points of their arguments, and respond directly to the Panel’s inquiries about the motion. There are currently five pending actions. Oral argument will ensure that the Panel has access to the views of all parties regarding the propriety of consolidation, transfer, and the proposed transferee district.
