Richard P. Nordan

Dear Counsel,

Please note that Respondent's Counsel has advised the ICDR today via phone that Respondent is unable to advance Respondent's share of the Tribunal's compensation and expenses.

Pursuant to the International Dispute Resolution Procedures, Claimants' Counsel is kindly asked to advise the ICDR about whether Claimants are willing to advance Respondent's share for this proceeding.

Please note that if we are not fully funded we will have to inform the Tribunal of the shortfall. The Tribunal may then decide whether to proceed or to suspend/terminate the proceedings. Please be advised that it is not uncommon for Tribunals to suspend proceedings when they are informed that the ICDR has not secured enough funds to cover their compensation requirements.

To avoid any further delays, Claimants' Counsel is kindly asked to advise about their position possibly by tomorrow, July 6, 2007, and by the latest by July 11, 2007.

If you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact me any time via phone or e-mail.

Sincerely,

Christian Paul Alberti
