ORDER

Defendant United States of America has moved for a stay of briefing in the above-captioned case. In support of said Motion, Department of Justice attorneys and employees of the federal defendants are prohibited from working, even on a voluntary basis, except in very limited circumstances, including “emergencies involving the safety of human life or the protection of property.” The Department does not know when funding will be restored by Congress.

For the reasons stated above, it is hereby ORDERED that the Federal Defendants’ Motion for a Stay of Summary Judgment Briefing be granted and an extension commensurate with the duration of the lapse in appropriations.

This is the 6 day of October, 2013.
