

GEOMETRY CLASS

With stripes, dots and squares, designers are modernizing the mod look.

Lulu de Kwiatkowski, a New York City-based fabric designer and decorative painter, finds inspiration for her signature geometric patterns on her travels through Cuba, Morocco, Peru and India. She created all the napkins shown here for her line Lulu DK Fabrics, including "Labyrinth"—the dark red one with beige lines ($21 each; 212-223-4234). Her cocktail napkin "Porcupine" ($38 for a set of six) rests on a "Haute Couture" accent plate by Colin Cowie for Lenox ($65; 800-63-LENOX) and a "Honey-Moon" white dinner plate by Stefanie Hering from Rosenthal ($60; 800-804-8070).
