LuLu's Studio offers unique, custom Cited Term decorations that will add fun and whimsy to any decor. Our hand painted canvases are perfect for bringing Ooh's and Aah's from the party guests as well as the recipient! The canvases need no framing and are custom painted and personalized just for you. You can have as much or as little input as you like. The possibilities are endless!!! Either way, your unique gift is sure to be the talk of the party or special occasion.

We offer a wide variety of canvases and Signature signs to insure that perfect gift! We have shown up at Baby Showers, Birthdays, Weddings, Graduations, Anniversaries, House Warmings, and even over Pet Beds! I can accommodate just about any request that you may have, to match any decor. I love to embellish our canvases with buttons, bows, rhinestones, silver spoons, vintage keys, or anything personal that would add that special touch. All of our canvases are gallery quality "stretched" canvas, painted with acrylic paint and sealed with a matte varnish to last a life time. Each canvas comes ready to hang with hardware installed.

I enjoy talking with my customers to ensure customer satisfaction and I encourage you to call me (740-881-0872) if you have any questions or need help with a special gift idea.

Due to the demand for our product and our commitment to excellence, please allow 4-6 weeks.
