ORDER

This matter is before the court on plaintiffs' motion for default judgment against defendant Joseph Lionel Jones. The clerk entered default against defendant Jones on June 6, 2010 [DE #166]. By motion, plaintiffs show that Mr. Jones is neither a minor nor incompetent. They also show by affidavit the amount of compensatory damages owed each plaintiff on his or her fraud claim against defendant Jones.

In addition to compensatory damages, plaintiffs also seek prejudgment interest from the date of filing as well as punitive damages.

In accordance with Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 55, the court hereby enters judgment by default against defendant Joseph

Lionel Jones. The court enters judgment against defendant Jones in the following amounts for each plaintiff, including prejudgment interest in the amount shown. The court declines to award punitive damages.
