

BARBARA J. RAGLAND,

Plaintiff,

v.

MICHAEL J. ASTRUE,
Commissioner of Social Security,

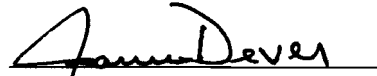

Defendant.

On April 9, 2009, Magistrate Judge Daniel issued a Memorandum and Recommendation (“M&R”). In that M&R, Judge Daniel recommended that plaintiff’s motion for judgment on the pleadings be granted, defendant’s motion for judgment on the pleadings be denied, and defendant’s final decision denying the request for benefits be reversed and remanded to permit the Administrative Law Judge to make specific findings regarding the treating physician’s opinion in the Physician Authorization for Certification and Treatment Form. No party filed objections to the M&R.

“The Federal Magistrates Act requires a district court to make a de novo determination of those portions of the [magistrate judge’s] report or specified proposed findings or recommendations to which objection is made.” Diamond v. Colonial Life & Accident Ins. Co., 416 F.3d 310, 315 (4th Cir. 2005) (alteration in original) (emphasis removed) (quotation omitted). Absent a timely objection, “a district court need not conduct a de novo review, but instead must only satisfy itself that there is no clear error on the face of the record in order to accept the recommendation.” Id. (quotation omitted).

The court has reviewed the M&R, the record, and the briefs. The court is satisfied that there is no clear error on the face of the record. Plaintiff's motion for judgment on the pleadings is GRANTED, defendant's motion for judgment on the pleadings is DENIED, and the action is REMANDED to the Commissioner.

SO ORDERED. This 1 day of July 2009.

JAMES C. DEVER III
United States District Judge
