ENTRY OF DEFAULT ON CROSS-CLAIM

Defendants.

On March 7, 2014, defendant and cross-plaintiff American Home Shield Corporation ("AHS") filed a second amended motion for entry of default against co-defendant and cross-defendant Kevin Saul, individually and d/b/a Saul Mobile Appliances ("Saul") [D.E. 48]. Upon review of the docket, the Clerk finds as follows:

- Saul was served with AHS' cross-claim on October 31, 2013 [D.E. 38]; 1)
- The time for Saul to answer or respond to the cross-claim has expired; and, 2)
- Saul has failed to answer or otherwise respond to AHS' cross-claim within the time 3) prescribed by law.

For the reasons stated, cross-defendant Kevin Saul, individually and d/b/a Saul Mobile Appliances, is in default on AHS' cross-claim under Rule 55(a) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Accordingly, cross-plaintiff AHS' motion for entry of default on its cross-claim [D.E. 48] is GRANTED.

This $\underline{\mu}^{\mu}$ of April 2014.

Julie A. Richards, Clerk of Court
