

standard to be applied in assessing a motion for expedited discovery, courts typically apply either a reasonableness or good cause test taking into account the totality of the circumstances, or a modified preliminary injunction test. Gaming v. W.G. Yates & Sons Constr. Co., No. 1:16CV30, 2016 WL 3450829, at *3 (W.D.N.C. 16 June 2016); Lewis v. Alamance Cty. Dep't of Soc. Servs., No. 1:15CV298, 2015 WL 2124211, at *1 (M.D.N.C. 6 May 2015).

This court agrees with the courts in this circuit that have applied the reasonableness or good cause standard to requests for expedited discovery. See Gaming, 2016 WL 3450829, at *3; Chryso, Inc. v. Innovative Concrete Sols. of the Carolinas, LLC, No. 5:15-CV-115-BR, 2015 WL 12600175, at *3 (E.D.N.C. 30 June 2015). Factors that courts consider under this test include the procedural posture of the case, whether the discovery requested is narrowly tailored, whether the party seeking the information would be irreparably harmed by waiting until after the parties conduct their Rule 26(f) conference, and whether the information sought would be unavailable or subject to destruction in the absence of expedited production. Chryso, 2015 WL 12600175, at *3.

Here, plaintiff alleges that defendants have acquired and transferred without authorization a movie for which plaintiff holds the copyright. Compl. ¶¶ 20, 34. It seeks identifying information for defendants in order to be able to litigate its infringement claims against them. Plaintiff contends, plausibly, that obtaining from Greenlight, Time Warner Cable, Suddenlink Communications, AT&T U-Verse, and Century Link as defendants' ISP the information it seeks regarding the defendants' identity is the only means it has to identify defendants and litigate its claims. Pl.'s Mem. 4-5 § II.B.3. Indeed, without the identifying information for defendants, enabling plaintiff to bring them into this case, no Rule 26(f) conference could be held. The information plaintiff seeks is narrowly tailored to meet its objective of identifying defendants. It consists of the true name, permanent address, current address, telephone number, email address, and media access control address of each defendant. Id. at 2 § I.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED as follows:

1. Plaintiff's motion (D.E. 4) is ALLOWED on the terms set forth below.
2. As to each defendant, plaintiff may serve on Greenlight, Time Warner Cable, Suddenlink Communications, AT&T U-Verse, or Century Link a separate subpoena that seeks documents containing the name, permanent address, current address, telephone number, e-mail address, and media access control address of the defendant. Greenlight, Time Warner Cable, Suddenlink Communications, AT&T U-Verse and Century Link are ordered to provide the documents sought in each subpoena in accordance with the terms of this order. Plaintiff shall attach to each subpoena a copy of this order.
3. Within seven days after the date of plaintiff's service on Greenlight, Time Warner Cable, Suddenlink Communications, AT&T U-Verse, or Century Link of a subpoena authorized herein, Greenlight, Time Warner Cable, Suddenlink Communications, AT&T U-Verse, and Century Link shall serve written notice of the subpoena on the defendant about whom documents are sought in the subpoena. If Greenlight, Time Warner Cable, Suddenlink Communications, AT&T U-Verse, Century Link, or the defendant about whom documents are sought in a subpoena wishes to have the subpoena quashed or modified, such person (whether it be Greenlight, Time Warner Cable, Suddenlink Communications, AT&T U-Verse, Century Link, or the defendant) must file with the court and serve on counsel for plaintiff a motion to quash or modify the subpoena prior to the return date for the subpoena (which is the date specified in the subpoena for production of the documents sought). The return date shall be no earlier than 21 days after the date of service by plaintiff of the subpoena on Greenlight, Time Warner Cable, Suddenlink Communications, AT&T U-Verse, or Century Link.

4. Greenlight, Time Warner Cable, Suddenlink Communications, AT&T U-Verse, and Century Link shall not produce any documents in response to a subpoena prior to the return date or, if any motions to quash or modify are filed with respect to the subpoena, unless and until an order is entered denying any such motions and permitting production pursuant to the subpoena (in which case production shall be in accordance with the terms of such order). Plaintiff shall notify Greenlight, Time Warner Cable, Suddenlink Communications, AT&T U-Verse, or Century Link of the filing of any motion to quash or modify a subpoena within one day after the filing of the motion. Greenlight, Time Warner Cable, Suddenlink Communications, AT&T U-Verse, and Century Link shall each make appropriate arrangements to ensure that it has notice of any motions to quash or modify a subpoena before it produces any documents in response to the subpoena.

5. Any documents produced to plaintiff in response to a subpoena, including the information contained therein, may be used by plaintiff solely for the purpose of prosecuting its infringement claims in this action.

6. Except as expressly provided herein, by further order of the court, or in the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, plaintiff may not engage in discovery in this action prior to the conduct of a Rule 26(f) conference.

SO ORDERED, this 10 day of October 2017.

United States Magistrate Judge
