To All -

Here's is the latest update on this situation. Most important is that the students who reside in this house have been fully cooperative and are concerned that their names will be in the press. Since they have not yet been officially charged with anything, they have asked that should the realty company (or anyone else at Duke) be asked for these names, that we not give them out since this is still just an investigation. Scott Selig has called Allenton Realty and alerted them to this.

The Durham Police are, in fact, investigating an alleged rape/kidnapping at 610 N. Buchanan. On Monday, March 13, two strippers were hired to perform at 610 N. Buchanan. About 30 men were in attendance, all members of the Duke Lacrosse team. One of the strippers appeared to be on drugs; the men decided to pay the women early, and then asked them to leave. They refused and the men paid them more. The one stripper ended up passing out either on a porch or deck in the back of the house and the men carried her to the other woman's car. At some point later, the passed out woman interacted with Durham Police at the Kroger on Hillsborough Road and made the allegations. I believe she was examined at the Duke ED.

Last night, the house was searched. The men volunteered to engage in DNA testing and to take lie detectors test. I believe the DNA testing was done.

Mike Pressler and Chris Kennedy are well aware of this situation. The men have denied all allegations - they obviously admit to hiring the strippers.

I can be reached at 824-5799. Sue

Have anyone touched base with Durham PD about whether the Duke students are suspects in this, what are the likelihood of charges?

The woman is not a student. She is not affiliated with Duke in any way.

However, lacrosse players live in the house where this allegedly happened. There was allegedly a party at the house over the weekend and strippers might have been involved and the alleged victim might be one of those strippers. These details have not been confirmed.

What we know for sure is that students live in the residence and that the woman is not affiliated with Duke.

Be prepared ... people might start asking questions since this is on the pac2 site and "party" is mentioned.

Leanora,

Thanks for the alert. We need to find out quickly whether she was a student.

If it is a student, we might want to consider an item on DUPD and News & Comm Web sites because this is one of those Clery Act crimes that people want to know about, even if the incident occurred off campus. I've sent a query to Lt. Raines over at DUPD to see if it is a student.

I would think so, wouldn't you? A party on Buchanan? Maybe not...I'm trying to place where the 600 block is...Maybe that's in Burch Ave?
