Subject I will fax this, but thought this might be non-winmail format..

Kate: Just in case this works, I'm attaching the attachment that I sent yesterday regarding the report Duke police gave to Durham Police. I'm attaching it here just in case you can pull it up when I send it with this email system (this is a gmail account).

At the same time, I will fax this to you so you're sure to get a copy one way or the other.

Thanks, in advance, for anything you can do to help.

-Bob
