Defendants.)

This matter comes before the Court on the motion of Defendants Tara Levicy (“Nurse Levicy”), Gary Smith (“Officer Smith”), Duke University (“Duke”), and Duke University Health System, Inc. (“DUHS”), (collectively, “Defendants”) to expedite briefing on Defendants’ Joint Motion to Strike Plaintiffs’ Untimely and Unauthorized “Corrected” Response Brief. [DE 362].

For good cause shown, Defendants’ motion to expedite briefing is granted and the briefing shall proceed as follows:

1. Plaintiffs shall file any response brief to Defendants’ motion to strike by 11:59 p.m. on 31 March 2014.
2. Defendants shall file any reply brief in further support of the motion to strike by 11:59 p.m. on 3 April 2014.
3. Should the Court ultimately deny the motion to strike and grant

Defendants' alternative motion for leave to file a supplemental reply brief in support of the motion for judgment on the pleadings, Defendants shall file any such reply brief within three days of the entry of an order denying the motion to strike and granting the alternative motion for leave.

It is therefore ordered, this the ____ day of March 2014.

The Honorable James A. Beaty, Jr.
District Judge
