THIS MATTER is before the court on defendants Midwest Motor Supply Co.’s and John Thomas Belk’s Motion for Change of Venue (#28). For cause, such defendants have shown the court that the Southern District of Ohio transferred two distinct cases to this district: (1) Zep, Inc. v. Midwest Motor Supply Co. d/b/a Kimball Midwest and John Thomas Belk, for filing in the Charlotte Division; and Zep, Inc. v. Midwest Motor Supply Co. d/b/a Kimball Midwest, Steven Lave, and Samuel Trantham, for filing in the Asheville Division. Such defendants have further shown this court that upon receipt of such transferred cases in this district, such cases were mistakenly rejoining and filed as one in the Asheville Division. In compliance with this court's Order of January 5, 2009, counsel have conferred and agreed that the severance agreed to and effectuated in the Southern District of Ohio should be honored and that the case of Zep, Inc. v. Midwest Motor Supply Co. d/b/a Kimball Midwest and John Thomas Belk should be re-severed, assigned a separate docket number, and transferred to the Charlotte Division wherein Mr. Belk resides. The parties further agree that Zep, Inc. v. Midwest Motor Supply Co. d/b/a Kimball Midwest, Steven Lave, and Samuel Trantham should remain in the Asheville Division. In allowing such re-severance and transfer, the court honors the Order of the Southern District of Ohio, but in so doing the undersigned in no way obligates or limits the inherent authority of the judges of this district to re-join or transfer either of these cases in their sound discretion.
