ORDER

THIS MATTER is before the Court sua sponte to ascertain the status of the case.

Affidavits of service filed by the Plaintiff show that the Defendants have been served but have failed to appear. [Docs. 4 through 13]. The Plaintiff, however, has not moved for entry of default.

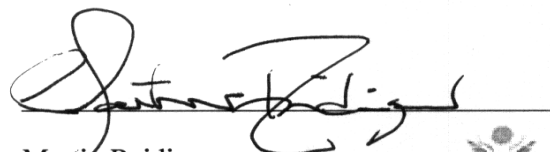

In addition, through communication from the chambers of the undersigned, Plaintiff's counsel was instructed that a Carden¹ response would be required prior to entry of default judgment. No such response has been placed in the record.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED that on or before thirty (30) days from entry of this Order, the Plaintiff shall file response advising the Court of its intention to further prosecute this matter. In the event that the Plaintiff does so intend, the Plaintiff shall within the same time period file response disclosing the names and citizenships, if any, of all the constituent members or partners of each of the limited liability companies named as parties herein, and, for any such constituent members or partners that are limited liability companies or partnerships, to identify the citizenships of the respective constituent members or partners until all such constituents are fully identified.
