ORDER

THIS MATTER is before the Court on the Motion for Attorneys’ Fees (Doc. No. 23) filed by plaintiff’s counsel, George C. Piemonte, on December 1, 2017. Pursuant to 42 U.S.C. §406(b), whenever the Court renders a judgment favorable to a claimant, it may award attorney fees not to exceed 25% of past-due benefits.

In the instant case, the fee agreement between the Plaintiff and counsel provides for a contingency fee of 25% of past-due benefits. In these circumstances, the reviewing court simply reviews the fee claimed for reasonableness. See Mudd v. Barnhardt, 418 F.3d 424, 427–28 (4th Cir. 2005) (citing Gisbrecht v. Barnhart, 535 U.S. 789, 801 (2002)).

Plaintiff was awarded $94,454.00 in past-due benefits at the administrative level after this court entered judgment. Plaintiff’s counsel requests a fee of $17,113.50, which, when considered with prior fees awarded to counsel, represents 25% of the total award. The Court has reviewed the amount requested by counsel and finds it to be reasonable in light of the fee agreement and amount of work expended by counsel. The fee is in line with the results achieved, and there is no indication that counsel caused unnecessary delay or that “the benefits are large in comparison to the amount of time counsel spent on the case.” Gisbrecht, 535 U.S. at 808.

Accordingly, counsel’s Motion is GRANTED. The Social Security Administration shall release the sum of $17,113.50 to Plaintiff’s counsel as attorney’s fees for services rendered before this court. Plaintiff’s counsel shall refund to the Plaintiff the amount of $5,600.00 previously awarded and paid to Plaintiff’s counsel pursuant to the Equal Access to Justice Act.

SO ORDERED.
