

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF NORTH CAROLINA
CHARLOTTE DIVISION

DARRYL LONG, individually and on behalf of all other similarly situated individuals,

Plaintiff,

vs.

CPI SECURITY SYSTEMS, INC.,

Defendant.

Civil Action No. 3:12-cv-396-RJC-DCK

CONSENT PROTECTIVE ORDER

It is hereby ORDERED by the Court that the following restrictions shall apply to certain information, documents, and excerpts from documents supplied by the parties to each other in response to discovery requests, including but not limited to, the information the Court ordered Defendant to produce to Plaintiff for purposes of effecting Notice to potential opt-in plaintiffs in its July 12, 2013 Order—the names and last known mailing addresses of all potential opt-in plaintiffs, (Doc. No. 86 at 10):

1. Counsel for any party may designate any document or information contained in a document as confidential if counsel determines, in good faith, that such designation is necessary to protect the interests of the client or a third party. Information and documents designated by a party as confidential will be labeled “CONFIDENTIAL.” “Confidential” information or documents may be referred to collectively as “Confidential Information.”

2. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, or otherwise provided for herein, the Confidential Information described above will be held and used by the person receiving such information solely for use in connection with the above-captioned action and for the purpose of mailing the Court-approved Notice to potential opt-in plaintiffs in this case.

3. In the event a party challenges another party's confidential designation, counsel shall make a good faith effort to resolve the dispute, and in the absence of a resolution, the challenging party may thereafter seek resolution by the Court. Nothing in this Protective Order constitutes an admission by any party that Confidential Information disclosed in this case is relevant or admissible. Each party specifically reserves the right to object to the use or admissibility of all Confidential Information disclosed, in accordance with applicable law.

4. Information or documents designated as "Confidential" shall not be disclosed to any person, except:

- a. The requesting party and counsel;
- b. Employees of such counsel assigned to and necessary to assist in the litigation;
- c. Consultants or experts to the extent deemed necessary by counsel;
- d. Any person from whom testimony is taken or is to be taken, except that such a person may only be shown confidential information during and in preparation for his/her testimony and may not retain the confidential information; and
- e. The Court or the jury at trial or as exhibits to motions.

5. Prior to disclosing or displaying the Confidential Information to any person, counsel shall:

- a. Inform the person of the confidential nature of the information or documents; and

b. Inform the person that this Court has enjoined the use of the information or documents by him/her for any purpose other than this litigation and has enjoined the disclosure of that information or documents to any other person.

6. The Confidential Information may be displayed to and discussed with the persons identified in Paragraph 4(c) and (d) only on the condition that prior to any such display or discussion, each such person shall be asked to sign an agreement to be bound by this Order in the form attached as Exhibit A. In the event such person refuses to sign an agreement in the form attached as Exhibit A, the party desiring to disclose the Confidential Information may seek appropriate relief from this Court.

7. For the purpose of Paragraphs 4(d) and (e), it is understood by the parties that any documents which become part of an official judicial proceeding or which are filed with the Court are public documents, and that such documents can and will be sealed by the Court only upon motion and in accordance with applicable law. This Protective Order does not provide for the automatic sealing of such documents.

8. At the conclusion of litigation, the Confidential Information and any copies thereof shall be promptly (and in no event later than thirty (30) days after entry of a final judgment no longer subject to further appeal) returned to the producing party or certified as destroyed. This paragraph shall not be construed to require the return or destruction of any Court papers and exhibits, deposition transcripts and exhibits (except those court papers, deposition transcripts, or exhibits which are under seal). The ultimate disposition of protected materials shall be subject to a final order of the Court upon completion of the litigation.

9. The foregoing is entirely without prejudice to the right of any party to apply to the Court for any further Protective Order relating to Confidential Information; or to object to the production of documents or information; or to apply to the Court for an order compelling production of documents or information; or for modification of this Order.

SO ORDERED.

Signed: August 13, 2013
