

however, that all terms of this order shall remain in effect until such resolution with respect to such dispute.

7) This consent protective order will also apply to testimony taken during depositions including any corporate 30(b)(6) deposition which may transpire during the pendency of this case.

8) Within 15 days of the entry of final judgment or dismissal of this litigation, including appeals and petitions for review, counsel and any other persons given access to such documents shall, within 60 days after request, return all confidential documents, including xeroxed copies of the same to the party who produced the documents with a written certification by the person that all such documents and copies of same have been, in fact, returned. Certification of destruction of the documents by the retaining party may also suffice with prior permission.

9) No term of this Protective Order will be the basis for the admission or exclusion of any evidence at trial otherwise admissible.

THE ULTIMATE DISPOSITION OF PROTECTED MATERIALS IS SUBJECT TO A FINAL ORDER OF THE COURT ON THE COMPLETION OF LITIGATION.

IT IS THEREFORE, ORDERED that this Protective Order, with the consent of the parties, is hereby entered.

This the 21st day of November, 2016.
