| 12/17/2015 | 371 | ORDER . The Court has reviewed Plaintiffs' submission of a proposed case management order relating to common benefit fee and expense funds (Doc. 264), Defendants' comments on the submission (Doc. 272), and Plaintiffs' reply (Doc. 291). The Court has also reviewed similar orders from 15 MDL cases found on the judges' resource page for MDL cases maintained by the Administrative Office of the U.S. Courts. The Court will enter Case Management Order #6 to govern these matters. The Court has largely adopted the proposed order, but has made changes (in addition to correcting typos) to § I.C, last sentence of the first paragraph; § II.A, first and second paragraphs; § II.D.1(iii); § II.E, last sentence; § III.A, last sentence; § IV.A, first paragraph; § IV.B.3; § IV.B.4, first and last paragraphs; and § V.B, last paragraph. The Court has also added § VI. The Court has made corresponding changes to Exhibit A. The Court has reduced the assessment for the common benefit funds from 9% to 8%, which is more in line with assessments in comparable cases. Signed by Judge David G Campbell on 12-17-15. | 08/29/2016 | 3272 | ORDER. The Court has reviewed the memoranda provided by the parties on the deposition of Jim Beasley. Docs. 3268, 3269. Plaintiffs argue that Defendants have not shown that Beasley falls within the apex deposition doctrine, but Plaintiffs agreed in the Parties' joint status report that Beasley was "President of BPV from 2007 through 2012" and "is currently a Group President at C.R. Bard." Doc. 3102 at 15. They do not dispute that in 2010 -- the year he wrote a memorandum about which Plaintiffs wish to ask him questions -- Beasley was responsible for hundreds of Bard products. Id. at 16. The Court concludes that Beasley "is clearly a high-level executive," and that the apex doctrine therefore applies. Klungvedt v. Unum Grp. , No. 2:12-CV-00651-JWS, 2013 WL 551473, at *2 (D. Ariz. Feb. 13, 2013). The relevant questions, then, are "whether the executive has unique, first-hand, non-repetitive knowledge of the facts at issue in the case and whether the party seeking the deposition has exhausted other less intrusive discovery methods." Id. The exhibits provided by Plaintiffs confirm that Beasley is a high-level executive (Doc. 3271 at 3); suggest that someone named Mark was going to talk to Beasley about a filter study (id. at 4-13); confirm that Beasley was identified as the author of a management memo written in 2010, addressed to Tim Ring and copied to at least five others (id. at 46); and contain speculation by Daniel Orms about what Beasley might have known or done in connections with the memo (id. at 15-44). These materials do not show that Beasley has unique, first-hand, non-repetitive knowledge of the facts at issue in this case, nor that Plaintiffs have exhausted other less intrusive discovery methods to obtain relevant information. The Court therefore concludes that Beasley should not be deposed at this time. If Plaintiffs conclude that they can make the required showing at a later point during the discovery period, they may raise this issue again with the Court. | 09/06/2016 | 3312 | ORDER. The Court has considered the memoranda recently filed by the parties on three discovery issues. Docs. 3306, 3308. On the first issue, the Court will require Plaintiffs' lead counsel and members of the Plaintiffs' Steering Committee, and their clients, to respond to Defendants' Interrogatories 1-4 (Doc. 3308-1 at 5-6) and Document Production Request 1 (as it relates to Interrogatories 1-4) (Doc. 3308-2 at 4). The Court concludes that these requests are relevant to the defense and proportional to the needs of the case. Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(1). Plaintiffs have placed and will continue to place much emphasis on the FDA letters, and information regarding Plaintiffs' role in securing those letters or otherwise influencing the FDA's actions is plainly relevant to the defense. The Court does not agree that these discovery requests are prohibited by CMO 5 (Doc. 927) or CMO 11 (Doc. 1662). Plaintiffs cite no language in these orders that prohibits additional discovery. |

|------------|-------------|--|
| | | Plaintiffs assert that any communications with the FDA would be hearsay, but information "need not be admissible in evidence to be discoverable." Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(1). Plaintiffs claim that their communications with the FDA are protected work product because they reveal mental impressions and strategies of counsel, but courts have widely held that communications with government regulators that might prompt government action that could prove beneficial in private litigation waive any work product protection. See, e.g., Reed v. Advocate Health Care, No. 06 C 3337, 2007 WL 2225901, at *2 (N.D. Ill. Aug. 1, 2007); Bank of Am., N.A. v. Terra Nova Ins. Co., 212 F.R.D. 166, 172–73 (S.D.N.Y. 2002); U.S. Info. Sys., Inc. v. Int'l Bhd. of Elec. Workers Local Union No. 3, No. 00CIV.4763(RMB)(JCF), 2002 WL 31296430, at *4–5 (S.D.N.Y. Oct. 11, 2002); Sidari v. Orleans Cty., No. 95–CV–7250, 2000 WL 33407343, at *8 (W.D.N.Y. Oct. 3, 2000); Three Crown Ltd. P'ship v. Salomon Bros., No. 92 CIV. 3142 (RPP), 1993 WL 277182, at *2 (S.D.N.Y. July 21, 1993). The Court will rule on the other discovery issues in separate docket entries. Signed by Judge David G Campbell on 9–6–16. This is a TEXT ENTRY ONLY. There is no PDF document associated with this entry. (DGC) (Entered: 09/06/2016) |
| 09/06/2016 | 3313 | ORDER. On the second discovery issue (see Doc. 3312), the Court will not require Plaintiffs to produce information regarding their communications with NBC or other media outlets. The Court reaches this conclusion because of Plaintiffs' assurance that the NBC news stories will not be used at trial: "Plaintiffs concur with Defendants that news stories published by NBC or other media outlets are not admissible. In light of this recognition..., Defendants have no argument as to why communications by Plaintiffs' counsel with NBC (if any) are relevant." Doc. 3306 at 4. The Court views this statement by Plaintiffs' lead counsel as binding in all of the cases in this MDL. As a result, stories by NBC news or other media outlets will not be admissible at trial, and discovery regarding those stories therefore does not seek relevant information. Signed by Judge David G Campbell on 9–6–16. This is a TEXT ENTRY ONLY. There is no PDF document associated with this entry. (DGC) (Entered: 09/06/2016) |
| 09/06/2016 | 3314 | ORDER. On the third discovery issue (see Doc. 3312), the Court will not require Plaintiffs to produce information regarding third-party funding arrangements. The Court cannot conclude that information regarding such arrangements is relevant to the defense of this case. In arguing to the contrary, Defendants cite to examples of funding arrangements in other cases and speculate that "if" such arrangements exist here, then Plaintiffs' counsel "may not represent the best interests of the plaintiffs, may represent the plaintiffs in a way they otherwise may not, or may not negotiate settlement in good faith, or may request unreasonably high damages." Doc. 3308 at 7–8. Defendants' argument that "if" a condition exists it "may" produce a particular result amounts to nothing more than conjecture. Defendants present nothing concrete — nothing specific to this case — that shows such discovery is relevant to a claim or defense. Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(1). Defendants will be permitted to conduct relevant damages discovery in individual cases. The Court notes, by the way, that Plaintiffs argue this discovery is not "reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence." Doc. 3306 at 5. That phrase, which never was intended to define the scope of discovery under Rule 26 (see 2015 Advisory Committee Note to Rule 26), was eliminated from Rule 26 on December 1, 2015. One other comment. The Court has been impressed with the professionalism of counsel on both sides of this case. Plaintiffs' memorandum went a bit too far in its accusations ("conveniently ignore," "witch hunt," "grasping theories"). The Court encourages both sides to maintain the professional approach and tone that have, to everyone's benefit, characterized this litigation thus far. Signed by Judge David G Campbell on 9–6–16.
