| 12/24/2016 | 4338 | ORDER. The parties were to submit their respective memoranda on selection of four additional bellwether cases on December 16 and 22, 2016. Doc. 4311. The docket contains only Plaintiffs' memorandum dated December 16, 2016. Doc. 4366. The Court has not received Defendants' memoranda dated December 16 or 22, or Plaintiffs' memorandum dated December 22. The parties shall file these memoranda by December 26, 2016. Signed by Judge David G Campbell on 12-24-16. This is a TEXT ENTRY ONLY. There is no PDF document associated with this entry. (DGC) (Entered: 12/24/2016) |
| 12/24/2016 | 4339 | ORDER. The Court has reviewed the parties' briefing on proposed depositions of Plaintiffs' counsel. The Court agrees that depositions of opposing counsel "should be employed only in limited circumstances," Shelton v. American Motors Corp., 805 F.2d 1323, 1327 (8th Cir. 1986), and is not persuaded they should be permitted here. Defendants have obtained interrogatory responses confirming that Plaintiffs' counsel reached out to the FDA on several occasions, held a conference call with FDA personnel, sent certain specific documents to the FDA, and sent emails to the FDA (copies of which Defendants have obtained). Defendants have also obtained some documents from the FDA related to these communications. This discovery will enable Defendants — if it is relevant and admissible, decisions the Court has not yet made — to argue that Plaintiffs' counsel reached out to the FDA, provided specific documents to the FDA, sent specific emails to the FDA, and did so before warning letters were issued. To the extent Defendants wish to argue that the FDA letters were prompted by Plaintiffs' counsel, they have the ability to do so. The Court is not persuaded that the additional and unusual step of deposing opposing counsel is "crucial to the preparation of the case." Id. Because Defendants' previous interrogatories asked only that Plaintiffs' counsel "identify" communications, the Court will permit Defendants to serve 7 additional interrogatories on each of Attorneys Dalimonte and Brenes concerning what was said in the communications. |

| 12/24/2016 | 4340 | ORDER . When the Court entered its order this morning requiring the parties to file their bellwether memoranda Monday (Doc. 4338), it did so on the understanding that the memoranda have already been drafted, as the Court was informed during the telephone conference last week (Doc. 4333). After the order was entered, it occurred to the Court that some legal offices may be closed Monday for the holiday. If so, the memoranda may be filed when the offices re-open. Don't make staff come into the office on a holiday to file them. Signed by Judge David G Campbell on 12-24-16. This is a TEXT ENTRY ONLY. There is no PDF document associated with this entry. | 02/06/2017 | 4865 | ORDER. The Court has reviewed the parties' briefing on issues in dispute with respect to Discovery Group 1. Docs. 4503, 4505, 4608, 4639. (In the future, responses and replies shall not be filed when the parties have each stated their positions in the initial filings, as here.) The Court concludes that limitations should not be placed on Plaintiffs' ex parte communications with treating physicians. The Court has reviewed cases cited by both sides, and finds that the weight of recent case law disfavors such limitations. See In re Xarelto (Rivaroxaban) Prods. Liab. Litig. , MDL No. 2592, 2016 WL 915288 (E.D. La. Mar. 9, 2016); In re Testosterone Replacement Therapy Prods. Liab. Litig. , MDL No. 2545, 2016 WL 929343 (N.D. Ill. Mar. 7, 2016); In re Benicar (Olmesartan) Prods. Liab. Litig. , MDL No. 2026, 2016 WL 1370998 (D.N.J. Apr. 6, 2016). Cases imposing such limitations are older than these recent cases and generally lack analysis in support of the limitations they impose. See, e.g., In re Chantix (Varenicline) Prod. Liab. Litig. , No. 2:09-CV-2039-IPJ, 2011 WL 9995561 (N.D. Ala. June 30, 2011); In re Ortho Evra Prod. Liab. Litig. , No. 1:06-40000, 2010 WL 320064 (N.D. Ohio Jan. 20, 2010); In re Nuvaring Prod. Liab. Litig. , No. 4:08MD1964 RWS, 2009 WL 775442 (E.D. Mo. Mar. 20, 2009). The Court finds the more recent decisions persuasive. The Court will adopt the disclosure requirements in the proposed case management order regarding ex parte communications. The Court also notes that it agrees with the Ninth Circuit's position in Goodman v. Staples The Office Superstore, LLC , 644 F.3d 817, 826 (9th Cir. 2011) ("a treating physician is only exempt from Rule 26(a)(2)(B)'s written report requirement to the extent that his opinions were formed during the course of treatment"). The parties have not briefed whether Goodman should apply in this MDL, but, if it does, the parties will not be permitted to present expert opinions that were not formed in the course of treatment unless those opinions were appropriately disclosed under Rule 26(a)(2). On another issue addressed in the briefing, the Court will not require that Defendants question treating physicians first. For treating physicians who would be called by Plaintiffs during their case in chief, "examination and cross-examination of a deponent proceed as they would at trial." Fed. R. Civ. P. 30(c)(1). The Court will adopt Plaintiffs' proposed order language on depositions of treating physicians. Finally, the Court will permit the deposition of one sales representative per case during Discovery Group 1. The Court concludes that such depositions will provide important information for bellwether selection, but that more than one deposition is not needed before selection. The Court will not impose the time or subject limits proposed by Defendants for the sales representative depositions. Signed by Judge David G Campbell on 2-6-17. This is a TEXT ENTRY ONLY. | 10/20/2017 | 8338 | ORDER. The Court has reviewed the parties' joint proposal regarding motions hearings. Doc. 8172. The Court finds the proposal ambitious, but will endeavor to comply with it for the hearings on November 17, 2017, December 15, 2017, and January 19, 2018. Because it is more important to get these decisions right than to make them quickly, however, the Court may adjust the schedule if six major motions per month are simply too many to resolve responsibly. The Court will, of course, give the parties advance notice of any change to the schedule. For now, the schedule will be followed. Signed by Judge David G Campbell on 10-20-17. | | | 2017. The Court will be prepared to hear arguments on the preemption motion for summary judgment on November 17, 2017 (the jury in the murder trial should be deliberating by that time), and, possibly, on either (1) the Booker motion for summary judgment or (2) the two motions to disqualify experts. If possible, and to assist the Court in this weekend's work, the parties should place a joint conference call to chambers tomorrow to state which of these two options they prefer. | 01/12/2018 | 9644 | ORDER . In revising the jury questionnaire, the Court limited the description of Plaintiff Booker's claims to defective design, failure to warn, and punitive damages. The Court reviewed the Booker summary judgment ruling and found that these are the only claims remaining in the case. See Doc. 8874, last page. The claims are based on strict liability and negligence, but the Court concluded that it was not necessary to make this distinction in the brief summary of the case.
