MOREOVER, SANCTIONS, IN THE FORM OF COSTS AND ATTORNEY'S FEES, MAY BE ASSESSED AGAINST YOU AND IN FAVOR OF DEFENDANT.

Plaintiff is advised to heed the following warning. Even pro se parties proceeding in federal court have duties pursuant to the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, particularly Rule 11. When Plaintiff signs and presents to the Court a pleading or other filing, Plaintiff is certifying that "to the best of [his] knowledge, information, and belief, formed after an inquiry reasonable under the circumstances" that he is not making filings "for any improper purpose, such as to harass, cause unnecessary delay, or needlessly increase the cost of litigation" and that "the factual contentions have evidentiary support, or, if specifically so identified, will likely have evidentiary support after a reasonable opportunity for further investigation or discovery.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 11(b). Violating these obligations can result in sanctions, including monetary sanctions. Fed. R. Civ. P. 11(c).

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED THAT

- (1) Plaintiff must file a written response to Defendant Casteen’s Motion (Doc. No. 66) within FOURTEEN (14) DAYS of the filing of this Order; and
- (2) The Clerk is directed to mail a copy of this Order and a copy of Defendant Casteen’s Motion (including attachments and exhibits) to the last known address of the Plaintiff that is on file in the Court’s records.
