The Smitten Kitten is a multiple award winning, progressive adult sex toys and equipment retailer specializing in the highest quality, safest and smartest selection of products available. The Smitten Kitten's incredibly diverse clients have learned to count on The Smitten Kitten to deliver hard-to-find, hand-crafted toys as well as the most cutting-edge information and resources.

Located in the historic Latham Building in the trend-setting Uptown area of Minneapolis, The Smitten Kitten offers a boutique-style shopping experience complete with complimentary coffee or tea and a personal guide to help you browse the world class selection of adult sex toys and equipment. Smitten Kitten's team members are lead by founder and owner, Jennifer Pritchett. The store is staffed by Sex Educators who are each adept at matching client needs with resources and equipment. This group of approachable professionals works with purpose, enthusiasm and integrity.

The Smitten Kitten cultivates a similarly welcoming and interactive environment for online customers worldwide. SmittenKittenOnline.com is designed to offer you a refreshingly simple, easily navigable, hassle-free shopping and community building experience. Know that The Smitten Kitten goes to great measures to protect your privacy and offer you a seamless online retail experience. Expert Sex Educators are available for consultations both in-store and over the phone to make your purchasing decisions easier.

The Coalition Against Toxic Toys (CATT) is a Minnesota Non-Profit program of The Smitten Kitten. This program is the first ever consumer empowerment organization in the adult industry and has garnered praise and groundbreaking change since its inception in 2005. The Smitten Kitten formed The Coalition Against Toxic toys to help combat the lack of accurate, honest information in the sex toy industry. The mission is to demystify
