

Affirmation of Bruce Duncanson

1. I attended the regularly scheduled monthly King-Lincoln Neighborhood Association meeting on Saturday, May 2, 2009 at Bethany Presbyterian Church, 206 N. Garfield, Columbus, Ohio, 43203.
2. Aside from me and Willis Brown, the president of the association, eight people were present at this meeting.
3. At this meeting, I introduced myself, explained I was a member of the Ohio Election Justice Campaign, explained that we wanted to be plaintiffs in their lawsuit, and I asked for their support. I explained that their lawyers were blocking us from intervening in the lawsuit.
4. None of the eight members of the King-Lincoln Neighborhood Association in attendance that day seemed to be aware of the association's involvement in the lawsuit as they were all silent.
5. One member said that they could not be a plaintiff because they were a neighborhood association.
6. Willis Brown then explained to them that the lawsuit involved the long lines from the 2004 election and only applied to people who were in the association at the time of 2004.

I affirm, under penalty of perjury, that the foregoing is true and accurate to the best of my knowledge.
