MEMORANDUM IN SUPPORT

Defendant, OCLC Online Computer Library Center, Inc. (“OCLC”), requests that the Court extend the time for it to answer or otherwise plead to December 13, 2010. Further, in light of the intervening holidays, and in consideration of the extension of OCLC’s time to file a motion to dismiss, OCLC requests that Plaintiffs’ date to file its memorandum in opposition to its motion to dismiss be extended to January 14, 2011. Absent case for any further extension, OCLC’s reply memorandum would then be filed within the normal time period provided by the local rules, that is, on January 31, 2011.

Before this case was transferred to this Court from in the Northern District of California, the parties proposed to the court that OCLC’s time to answer be extended to 21 days from the determination of OCLC’s Motion to Transfer this case to this Court. The court entered that schedule, and subsequently, on October 28, 2010, transferred the case to this Court. However, the transfer of this case was not completed until November 12, 2010. Counsel for OCLC currently has a number of deadlines that require this brief extension, including preparation of a motion to dismiss another antitrust case pending in the District of Idaho, an appeal brief for the Fourth Circuit Court of Appeals, and a special master report for the Eastern District of Michigan.

Plaintiffs have indicated that they do not oppose this extension, provided that their time to file a memorandum in opposition be extended in light of the intervening holidays. Accordingly, OCLC respectfully requests that the Court enter the briefing schedule proposed above.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ James A. Wilson
