

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF OHIO
EASTERN DIVISION

Keith R. Sullivan,

Plaintiff,

v.

Case No. 2:12-cv-785

Carolyn W. Colvin,
Acting Commissioner of Social Security,

Defendant.

ORDER

This matter is before the court for consideration of the July 12, 2013, report and recommendation of the United States magistrate judge to whom this case was referred pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §636(b). The magistrate judge recommended that the court reverse the decision of the Commissioner pursuant to Sentence 4 of 42 U.S.C. §405(g), and that this action be remanded to the Commissioner for further consideration of the medical source opinions.

The report and recommendation specifically advised the parties that the failure to object to the report and recommendation within fourteen days of the report would result in a "waiver of the right to de novo review by the District Judge and of the right to appeal the decision of the District Court[.]" Doc. 21, pp. 13-14. The time period for filing objections to the report and recommendation has expired. The Commissioner has not objected to the report and recommendation.

The court has reviewed the report and recommendation of the magistrate judge. Noting that no objections have been filed and that the time for filing such objections has expired, the court adopts the report and recommendation of the magistrate judge (Doc. 21). Accordingly, the court reverses the Commissioner of Social Security's decision denying plaintiff's applications for disability insurance benefits and supplemental security income, and remands this case to the Commissioner for further consideration of the medical source opinions consistent with the report and recommendation.
