

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF OHIO
EASTERN DIVISION

Dennis R. Brock,

Plaintiff,

Case No. 2:15-cv-3050

v.

Judge Michael H. Watson

Attorney General of the State of Ohio.

Defendant.

OPINION AND ORDER

On December 29, 2015, Magistrate Judge King, upon an initial screen of the instant complaint pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1915(e), 1915A, issued a Report and Recommendation (“R&R”) recommending the Court dismiss this action for lack of subject matter jurisdiction and for failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted. R&R, ECF No. 7.

In so doing, she found that: (1) the Rooker-Feldman abstention doctrine divests this Court of subject matter jurisdiction to hear Plaintiff’s claim challenging state court decisions characterizing him as a vexatious litigator; (2) Plaintiff fails to state a claim that Ohio Revised Code § 2323.52 is unconstitutional because it impedes his right to pursue a habeas corpus action; and (3) to the extent Plaintiff alleges that Ohio Revised Code § 2323.52 violates the Ohio Constitution, the Court lacks jurisdiction to hear that claim. Id. at 2–5.

Plaintiff objects. ECF No. 9. The Court has thoroughly reviewed Plaintiff's objections and finds them meritless. Accordingly, the Court OVERRULES Plaintiff's objection, ECF No. 9, ADOPTS the R&R, and dismisses this action.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

MICHAEL H. WATSON, JUDGE
UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
