

Ex 10

AND...
IT WAS ME

HARASSING A PATRON

1 accuser but you could be arrested. And I guess
2 the question of whether you can be excluded from
3 a public library, based upon hearsay evidence, is
4 the question that this case presents.

5 MR. DOYLE: I'm talking about being
6 found guilty.

7 THE COURT: You haven't been found
8 guilty of anything, have you?

9 MR. DOYLE: I've been barred from
10 the library for years.

18:13

11 THE COURT: Well, that's not a
12 criminal conviction. That's a, that's your being 13 barred from a public place.

14 MR. DOYLE: Yes.

15 THE COURT: The question is whether
16 that's --

17 MR. DOYLE: On what grounds? In 18 other words -- what grounds? **

18:19

19 THE COURT: On grounds of harassing
20 a patron. That's the way I read it anyway.

21 MR. DOYLE: If I haven't faced the
22 patron then, how do they know it was me?

18-23

23 THE COURT: Well, because I guess --

24 MR. DOYLE: Or if -- how does he
25 know it was me? In other words, if I -- okay. ***
