JURISDICTION

1. Jurisdiction of this Honorable Court is invoked because Defendants All reside in, and/or conduct business within this Federal District and Division and pursuant to 28 U.S.C. @1331 and 28 U.S.C. @ 1343(3) et seq. To enforce Rights Guaranteed by the United States Constitution and Laws and Treatises of this union.

FACTS

Plaintiff being first duly sworn, hereby alleges as follows:

2. That Plaintiff is, and was, at all times relevant to this case, a resident of this federal Judicial District.

3. That Defendant is and was, at all times relevant to this case, a state Actor conducting business and violating civil rights in this federal Judicial District. *131
6,7,9,11,14,15*

4. That on March 21, 2005, Plaintiff was exercising his 1st, 5th, 8th, 14th, Amendment rights attempting to peacefully assemble and exercise his public Accommodation rights at the Clark County public library in Springfield, OH.

5. That on arrival at such address, Defendant, John Mc Conagh, by and through Agent John Dempsey approached plaintiff with a letter banning him from the public library.

FACTS

1. 3/21/05 Incident report written by Jeffery S. Smith. John Dempsey said: "I John Dempsey escorted him to the Directors office" even though the incident report has only one hand writing. Angie Jones nor John Dempsey wrote on the incident report. Jeffery S. Smith wrote for Angie Jones and John Dempsey; "Hearsay."
2. 3/21/05 letter banning Plaintiff Doyle from the library. Director John McConagha said"Because you have violated the Clark County Library,s Code of Conduct by staring,following, a library user about the library, and harassing a library user, you are banned effective March 21, 2005 until March 21, 2007 from the library facilities. The complaint against you was made to one of our security officers at the Main Library on Friday, March 18,2005 by a female African- American library user. I confirmed the complaint by phone today."hearsay. 3/21/05 permission to appeal decision. Director John McConagha said after banning Plaintiff from the library "You may appeal this decision in writing to me within 30 days of your receipt of this letter. Your appeal may include your version of events on March 18,2005. Plaintiff was banned from the library without being asked his side of the story Then Plaintiff Wayne Doyle was advised that he could submit the only written version of the "alleged" 3/21/05 incident.
3. 4/25/05 Appeal Decision. Director John McConagha said: In making my decision,I have considered the report of the security guard, my phone call to the complainant, the affidavit of Stephanie Southers as well as Mr Doyle's statement given at the appeal hearing. I found the Complainant's version of what happened and the security guard's report to be credible. The Complainant's statement that she made to me was consistent with what she reported to the officer. I did not find Mr Doyle's version of what happened on March 18,2005 credible. Mr Doyle was not able to offer an explanation of why the Complainant would fabricate such a story

Note. The alleged complainant, Angie Jones nor the security officer's Jeffery Smith or John Dempsey were present at the appeal hearing to give their written, spoken, assumed statement concerning Plaintiff DoyleS 'alleged misconduct. Director John McConagha held the 4/25/2005, appeal hearing representing the evidence, Judge and the jury.

Plaintiff Wayne Doyle received a copy of the incident report for the first time at the appeal hearing on 4/25/05.

4. 4/25/2005 Plaintiff Wayne Doyle's written statement. Wayne Doyle said: I also have a witnesses from security staff name John /Dempsey. On the second page of the incident report that there were no teens or children in the teen area at no time, when I was using the area. Other adults use the same area without teen or children present. It seems to me, if there is really a complainant, this person was probably watching and following me around on days my kids were there. Her complaint is nothing more than a lie so that the Director can paint the picture of me that he's already has in his mind to paint regardless of wheather or not the complaint was true or false"

5. 10/23/06 Public records request. John McConagha said: (1) There is no written statement from Angie Jones. (2) Angie Jones recorded statement from 3/21/05 is enclosed.

6. 11/6/2006 Public records request. John Mc Conagha said: We do not have a recorded statement from Angie Jones.

7. 11/16/2006 Public records request. John McConagha said no charges of: Disorderly conduct had been filed against Plaintiff Wayne Doyle. No criminal charges filed against Wayne Doyle by the Clark County Library for Harrassing her. No record of criminal charges filed against Wayne Doyle by Angie Jones.

Angie ~~Jones~~ Jones told me Jeff Smith, Security Officer that Wayne Doyle was harassing her on the Date of March 18th 2005. She gave me her name and number on March 20th 2005 with a full detailed complaint of the incident.

Angie said he was following her around the library, and staring at her, making her feel uncomfortable. This was not the first time he has followed her around. Angie told me that she has seen Wayne in the Back Section of the Library, messing around with young females, and camping out with them. Angie was very concerned about the well being of the young girls. On March 21st 2005, I, Jim Dempsey, Security Officer gave Wayne Doyle the letter that the Director told him to give to Wayne Doyle. See Attached Sheet

Officer Name: Jeffrey S. Smith Signature: J. S. Smith

Date & Time of Report: 3/21/05

John Dempsey told Wayne Doyle that he was to leave the property, to read the letter, and that he was trespassing, but he did not leave the property. He asked to see the Director. I. John Dempsey escorted him, to the Director's office. The Director John McConaghie informed him, he was trespassing, and was to leave now, or the police would be called immediately. Wayne Doyle said OK, and left.

Mr. Wayne Doyle

Dear Mr. Doyle:

Because you have violated the Clark County Public Library's Code of Conduct by staring, following a library user about the library, and harassing a library user, you are banned effective March 21, 2005 until March 21, 2007 from all library facilities. The complaint against you was made to one of our security officers at the Main Library on Friday, March 18, 2005 by a female African-American library user. I confirmed the complaint by phone today.

Under the ban you are not permitted to use or be in or on the grounds of any Clark County Public Library facility. If you are on the property of any Clark County Public Library facility during the ban time period, you will be arrested for trespassing.

You may appeal this decision in writing to me within 30 days of your receipt of this letter. Your appeal may include your version of events on March 18, 2005.

Sincerely,

John McConaghie

Re: Wayne Doyle Appeal Decision

Dear Mr. Grinvalds:

This appeal came before me, the Clark County Public Library ("CCPL") Director, on Friday, April 15, to determine whether Mr. Wayne Doyle should be suspended from the library for violating the Library's Code of Conduct.

CCPL's Code of Conduct states that "Patrons shall respect the rights of others and shall not harass or annoy others by acts including, but not limited to: staring, following another person about the building, or behaving in a manner which reasonably can be expected to disturb others." A library patron ("Complainant") reported that Mr. Doyle was harassing her by staring and following her around the library. This behavior is in violation of CCPL's Code of Conduct.

Hearing / Hear say

In making my decision, I have considered the report of the security guard, my phone call to the Complainant, the affidavit of Stephanie Souther as well as Mr. Doyle's statement given at the appeal hearing. I found the Complainant's version of what happened and the security guard's report to be credible. The Complainant's statement that she made to me was consistent with what she reported to the Officer. I did not find Mr. Doyle's version of what happened on March 18, 2005 credible.

At the hearing, Mr. Doyle was given an opportunity to tell his side of the story. He denied that he followed the Complainant around the library, and was staring at anyone. Mr. Doyle did however acknowledge that he frequently sits in the Teen Room. Although he denies the Complainant's report of what happened, Mr. Doyle was not able to offer an explanation of why the Complainant would fabricate such a story.

Perponderance of evidence.

Notes from John McConagh's phone call to complainant regarding March 18, 2005 incident:

John McConagh, Library Director, called the complainant on March 21, 2005, regarding harassment by Wayne Doyle. The complainant, an African-American female adult, informed me that Mr. Doyle had been staring at her and following her on several occasions. When asked for a specific date/time, she indicated that one instance was in the afternoon on Friday March 18, 2005. The complainant said that she was from out of town and only occasionally uses CCPL, but was in the library to do some research. She further indicated that she observed Mr. Doyle staring at and following teenagers and younger children. The complainant said that Mr. Doyle situated himself in the Teen Room at the Main Library in such a way as to be able to stare at teenage children in the Teen Room and to stare at young children in the adjacent Children's Room. She observed the same behavior from Mr. Doyle toward herself and others on Saturday, March 19 as well. She filed a complaint with the library security officer on Sunday, March 20.

RE: WAYNE DOYLE

I WENT TO THE CLARK COUNTY PUBLIC LIBRARY ON OR ABOUT MARCH 22, 2005. MY REASON FOR THIS VISIT WAS TO INQUIRE WHY MY DAUGHTER HAD BEEN BAN FROM THE LIBRARY ON A PREVIOUS DATE. I SPOKE TO THE DIRECTOR, MR. MC CONAGHA REGARDING MY DAUGHTER TO SEE IF SHE HAD FILED A COMPLAINT AGAINST WAYNE DOYLE. THERE HAVE BEEN TIMES WHEN I HAVE ASKED MR. DOYLE KEEP AN EYE ON MY DAUGHTER AT THE LIBRARY. THE DIRECTOR INFORMED ME THAT SHE DID NOT FILE A COMPLAINT. AT THAT TIME MR. MC CONAGHA STARTED TO ASK ME QUESTIONS AND TELLING ME ABOUT WAYNE, THINGS LIKE : WAYNE DOYLE IS A SEXUAL PREDATOR, HE STARES AT WOMEN, FOLLOWS THEM AROUND THE LIBRARY AND THAT THERE HAVE BEEN OTHER COMPLAINTS ABOUT HIM. AND IF I COULD HELP HIM FOUND OUT ANY INFORMATION ABOUT WAYNE IT WOULD BE HIGHLY APPRECIATED. HE FEELS THAT WOMEN SHOULD BE ALLOWED TO COME TO THE LIBRARY WITHOUT BEING SEXUALLY HARASSED. ALSO, SOMETHING ABOUT HIM, WAYNE BEING BAN ONCE ALREADY AND THAT HE WOULD LIKE TO KEEP HIM OUT PERMANENTLY.
