It appearing that Defendant Gator Piqua Partners, LLLP (“Gator Piqua”) in its Answer to the Complaint consents to judgment against it on Counts Two and Three of the Complaint as to its obligations under the Mortgage at issue herein; and it further appearing that Plaintiff PNC Bank, National Association, Successor by Merger to National City Bank, owns the Mortgage at issue in this action; and it further appearing that under the Note, as that term is defined in the Complaint, Defendant Gator Piqua is indebted thereunder in some amount of principal plus accrued interest as of October 5, 2012, which continues to accrue at the per diem rate of $73.73 (as may be adjusted by the terms of the Note at issue) until the sale of the Premises and Assets, as those terms are defined in the Complaint, together with costs through and after the date of the sale of the Premises and Assets (collectively, the “Indebtedness”); and it further appearing that the Mortgage at issue in this action secures the Note Indebtedness, it is, accordingly, hereby:
