

from annoyance, embarrassment, oppression, or undue burden or expense").¹

Plaintiff and Defendant's ISP are prohibited from publicly disclosing John Doe's personal identifying information absent further order by the Court.

Date: September 24, 2015

WALTER H. RICE
UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE

¹ Defendant John Doe may wish to be identified by his or her true name after entering an appearance in this matter. At that time, he or she may move the Court for an order vacating the protective order.