Circuit Judges; Tenth Circuit Court Judges; John William Loyd, U.S. Marshal for the Eastern District of Oklahoma; Nancy Pelosi, Speaker of the House of Representative; and Joseph Biden, U.S. Vice President.

Plaintiff has filed an almost illegible, 371-page complaint that includes 268 pages of exhibits [Docket #1]. He apparently is alleging the defendants have conspired against him and interfered with his civil rights in retaliation for his previous litigation. He claims the defendants have intimidated and threatened him, attempted to murder him, and obstructed his access to the courts [Docket #1 at 2]. These violations allegedly have been ignored by federal and state judges and attorney, FBI agents, and the President. Id. As best as the court can read plaintiff's handwriting, he is requesting the following relief:

Due process be render [sic] & the submission of the physical evidence of the Holiday card (not copies) be provided & the stamp [sic] envelope that the card was in or dismiss/expunge misconduct report & etc. for the destruction of this evidence & urgently request a [sic] evidentiary hearing on these grounds etc. & injunction & T.R.O. hearings urgently.

[Docket #1 at 78].

The court has reviewed the record and construes plaintiff's pro se pleadings liberally. Haines v. Kerner, 404 U.S. 519 (1972). This relaxed standard, however, does not relieve his burden of alleging sufficient facts on which a recognized legal claim could be based. Hall v. Bellmon, 935 F.2d 1106, 1110 (10th Cir. 1991). Although plaintiff has not paid the filing fee in this action or been granted leave to proceed in forma pauperis, this court is empowered to dismiss the complaint pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915A:

(a) Screening.--The court shall review, before docketing, if feasible or, in any event, as soon as practicable after docketing, a complaint in a civil action in which a prisoner seeks redress from a governmental entity or officer or employee of a governmental entity.

(b) Grounds for dismissal.--On review, the court shall identify cognizable claims or dismiss the complaint, or any portion of the complaint, if the complaint--

(1) is frivolous, malicious, or fails to state a claim upon which relief

may be granted; or

(2) seeks monetary relief from a defendant who is immune from such relief.

28 U.S.C. § 1915A.

Here, the court finds plaintiff's claims against the numerous defendants, including judges, elected officials, and celebrities who could not possibly be connected to the alleged civil rights violations, are frivolous and malicious. Therefore, summary dismissal is appropriate.

ACCORDINGLY, this action is, in all respects, DISMISSED pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915A(b)(1). All pending motions are DENIED as moot.

IT IS SO ORDERED this 6th day of May 2010.
