OPINION AND ORDER

Before the undersigned is plaintiff’s Motion for Equal Access to Justice Act Fees. (Dkt. # 21). Plaintiff seeks an award of attorney fees pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2412 (the “EAJA”) in the total amount of $4,790.90, and $16.79 for the costs of certified mail delivery. The Commissioner’s response was due on June 24, 2011. No response has been filed.

Title 28, Section 2412 of the U.S. Code requires the United States to pay attorney fees and expenses to a “prevailing party,” unless the Court finds the position of the United States was substantially justified, or special circumstances make an award unjust. 28 U.S.C. § 2412(d). The United States bears the burden of proving that its position was substantially justified. Kemp v. Bowen, 822 F.2d 966, 967 (10th Cir. 1987). In addition, once an EAJA application is filed, the government must justify both its position in any underlying administrative proceedings and in any subsequent court litigation. Hackett v. Barnhart, 475 F.3d 1166, 1170 (10th Cir. 2007). Since the government has filed no objection to the requested award, there can be no finding that the government has met its burden of showing that its position was substantially justified.

Only “reasonable attorney fees” may be awarded under the EAJA. 28 U.S.C. § 2412(d)(2)(A). The Court is required to examine the request to determine whether the fees requested are reasonable, and the plaintiff bears the burden of proving that the requested hours are reasonable. Hensley v. Eckerhart, 461 U.S. 424, 437 (1983). Plaintiff seeks an award for 26.9 hours of attorney time expended and 0.9 hours of paralegal time expended on this federal action. The undersigned has reviewed the time records submitted by plaintiff’s counsel and finds them to be reasonable.

Based on the foregoing, plaintiff’s Motion for Fees (dkt. # 21) is GRANTED. Pursuant to the Commissioner’s usual practice, the check should be made payable to plaintiff and mailed to counsel’s address. See Manning v. Astrue, 510 F.3d 1246, 1254-55 (10th Cir. 2007) (the award of EAJA attorney fees is to claimant and not to the attorney). If attorney fees are also awarded and received by counsel under 42 U.S.C. § 406(b) of the Social Security Act, counsel is directed to refund the smaller award to plaintiff pursuant to Weakley v. Bowen, 803 F.2d 575, 580 (10th Cir. 1986).

SO ORDERED this 25th day of July, 2011.
