Case No. CIV-04-1569-W

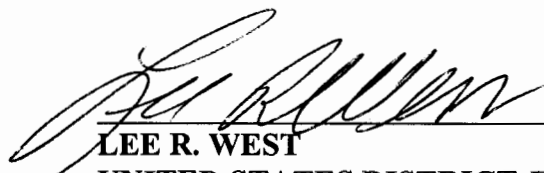

ORDER

This matter comes before the Court on the defendant's motion for leave to file a 30-page reply brief. On May 24, 2007, the Court granted the defendant's unopposed motion to file an oversized brief not to exceed 25 pages. The Court notes the plaintiffs' objection to the further enlargement of the defendant's reply, but determines that justice and efficiency are best served by bringing the briefing in this matter to an expeditious close.

Accordingly,

1. the Court GRANTS the defendant's motion for leave to file her 30-page reply;
2. DEEMS said reply to have been timely filed; and
3. ADVISES that no further briefing, whether in the form of a reply, sur-reply, or supplement shall be permitted except upon order of the Court.

ENTERED this 31st day of May, 2007.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE
