-vs-)

Case No. CIV-17-1343-F

CHRIS TORRES, an individual, et al.,)

Defendants.)

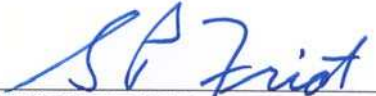

ORDER

The First Amended Complaint named the “John Doe Company” as a defendant in this action for the first time. Doc. no. 8. The comprehensive joint status report filed by the parties on August 9, 2018, does not mention the John Doe Company (except in the caption). Doc. no. 58. The first scheduling order required any motions to join additional parties or motions to amend to be filed by October 1, 2018. Doc. no. 61. That deadline passed with no such motions having been filed. To date, the First Amended Complaint has never been amended to identify the John Doe Company. In addition, the record does not reflect service on any company which plaintiff may intend to substitute for the John Doe Company. At this point, various trial-related filings are underway, and a jury trial is set on the December 2019 docket.

Given these circumstances, and absent an objection for good cause shown, the John Doe Company will be deemed dismissed (i.e., will be considered dismissed, without the need of further order) effective ten days from the date of this order. Any objection is DUE within ten days of the date of this order. The dismissal will be without prejudice, for lack of timely service and for failure to prosecute. See, Rule 4(m), Fed. R. Civ. P.¹

IT IS SO ORDERED this 1st day of August, 2019.
