

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF OREGON
PORTLAND DIVISION

CAROLYN BOUDREAU,

Petitioner,

v.

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Respondent.

Misc. No. 3:07- 9148

[Proposed]

ORDER DISMISSING CASE

This case is a petition to quash three Internal Revenue Service summonses. Respondent, the United States of America, has filed a second motion to dismiss this case, arguing that the Court has already adjudicated a materially identical petition to quash in Boudreau v. United States, No. 07-mc-7015-AA (ECF No. 4, entered Feb. 8, 2008). The United States also argues that the case is moot because the Internal Revenue Service has already reached a final determination of the petitioner's tax liability, so the information sought by the summonses is no longer necessary. The petitioner does not oppose this motion.

For the reasons set forth in the United States' Unopposed Motion to Dismiss Case as Adjudicated and as Moot, and because that Motion is unopposed, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that this case is dismissed.

Dated this 6th day of December, 2011

UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE

Respectfully presented this 2nd day of December, 2011.
