KING, Judge: .

The Honorable Dennis J. Hubel, United States Magistrate Judge, filed Findings and Recommendation on February 2, 2010. Defendant filed timely objections to the Findings and Recommendation.

When either party objects to any portion of a magistrate's Findings and Recommendation concerning a dispositive motion or prisoner petition, the district court must make a de novo determination of that portion of the magistrate's report. 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1); Fed. R. Civ. P. 72(b); McDonnell Douglas Corp. v. Commodore Business Machines, Inc., 656 F.2d 1309, 1313 (9th Cir. 1981), cert. denied, 455 U.S. 920 (1982). This court has, therefore, given de novo review to the rulings of Magistrate Judge Hubel on the Motion to Dismiss.

When either party objects to any portion of a magistrate's order concerning a nondispositive matter, the district court will modify or set aside any part of the order that is clearly erroneous or is contrary to law. 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1); Fed. R. Civ. P. 72(a); McDonnell Douglas Corp. v. Commodore Business Machines, Inc., 656 F.2d 1309, 1313 (9th Cir. 1981), cert. denied, 455 U.S. 920 (1982). This court has reviewed the rulings of Magistrate Judge Hubel on the Motion to Transfer under a clearly erroneous or contrary to law standard.

This court ADOPTS the Findings and Recommendation of Magistrate Judge Hubel dated February 2, 2010 in its entirety.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Traffic Information, LLC's Motion to Dismiss for Lack of Subject Matter Jurisdiction and Alternative Motion to Transfer Venue (#8) are denied.

Dated this 19 day of March, 2010.
