

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF OREGON
PORTLAND DIVISION

BRANDON MOYE, SR.,

Plaintiff,

v.

PEGASUS HOME CARE and CASCADIA HEALTH CARE,

Defendants.

No. 3:17-cv-01995-MO

OPINION AND ORDER

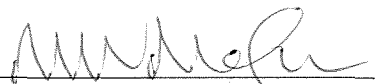

MOSMAN, J.,

This matter comes to me on Defendant Cascadia Health Care's Motion to Dismiss [27]. Defendant argues that pro se Plaintiff Brandon Moye, Sr.'s Amended Complaint [26] must be dismissed because the Court lacks subject matter jurisdiction. Mr. Moye responded [33]. I previously found subject matter jurisdiction lacking in this case and dismissed Plaintiff's Complaint [1] with leave to amend. Op. & Order [20]. Plaintiff's Amended Complaint did not allege any additional basis for this Court's jurisdiction.

Therefore, for the same reasons articulated in my May 7, 2018, Opinion and Order [20], I GRANT Defendant's Motions to Dismiss [27]. Plaintiff's Amended Complaint is DISMISSED.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

DATED this 1st day of January, 2019.

MICHAEL W. MOSMAN
Chief United States District Judge
