Plaintiff,

v.

ORDER

DITECH FINANCIAL LLC, and Does 1-50,

Defendants.

COFFIN, Magistrate Judge:

Defendant filed a motion (#20) to compel and for monetary sanctions. Pro se plaintiff responded with a motion to voluntarily dismiss the action with prejudice. The latter motion is allowed. The motion to compel is denied as moot and the motion for monetary sanctions is denied as an award of monetary sanctions in the circumstances of this case would be unjust, especially in light of the voluntary dismissal with prejudice. .
