MEMORANDUM AND ORDER

Fullam, Sr. J.

June 28, 2006

In his pro se complaint, plaintiff alleges that he was subjected to random urinalysis testing which purported to establish that he had consumed illegal drugs (TCH); that the defendants (all of whom are prison officials at SCI-Houtzdale and SCI-Cresson) thereafter repeatedly required him to undergo urinalysis testing, and imposed discipline when the tests were returned as "positive" for the use of illegal drugs. In the memorandum of law accompanying his pro se complaint, plaintiff seems to be of the view that, whereas "random" drug testing of prison inmates is perfectly acceptable, "investigatory" testing followed by disciplinary action is a violation of his constitutional rights.

While it seems clear that plaintiff's complaint is legally frivolous, I decline to rule on the merits of the case at this stage. Since all of the defendants are located in the Western District of Pennsylvania, and since all of the alleged violations occurred in that District, it is obvious that this court lacks personal jurisdiction over any of the defendants, and that, if plaintiff wishes to pursue his claims, he must do so in the Western District of Pennsylvania. An Order follows.
