EASTERN DISTRICT OF PENNSYLVANIA
PHILADELPHIA

CARL EVANS, DONALD SPENCER,
VALERIE SPENCER, CINDY CARTER, individuals, on Behalf of themselves and for the Benefit of all with the Common or General Interests, Any Persons Injured, and All Others Similarly Situated,

CIVIL DIVISION

No. 10-cv-1679

Plaintiffs,

v.

LINDEN RESEARCH, INC., a corporation, and PHILIP ROSEDALE, an individual,

Defendants.

DECLARATION OF VALERIE SPENCER

I, Valerie Spencer, declare as follows:

1. I am an adult individual and reside at 3795 West Porcupine Lane, Dunellon, FL 34433.
2. I have created multiple accounts in Second Life, which is operated by Linden Research, Inc. ("Linden").
3. I read written statements and representations made by Defendants in the media regarding the ownership of virtual property in Second Life.
4. I believed the statements made by Defendants that the virtual items and land I purchased and created in Second Life meant that I owned them.
5. I purchased and created virtual property in Second Life and had my U.S. currency converted to "lindens."

6. I lost a significant amount of money when Defendant Linden improperly confiscated my virtual property and items and money.

7. I believe that Defendant Linden improperly confiscated virtual property and items and money around the same time as Marc Bragg.

8. I have not activated that account again and, as such, I believe it remains subject to the Terms of Service that include the unconscionable arbitration provision.

9. On another account, Defendant Linden has required me to agree to a modified Terms of Service at various times.

10. I was provided nothing in exchange for agreeing to the modified Terms of Service.

11. Rather, Linden threatened to terminate my ability to participate in Second Life, thus confiscating my virtual land and items and money, if I did not agree to the modified Terms of Service.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America that the foregoing is true and correct. Executed on July 28, 2010.
