<sup>3</sup> As the Court noted in its Memorandum Opinion, in their January 30, 2014 motion for relief from the automatic stay, the Langlais petitioners specifically disclaimed any intent to pursue their entitlement to attorneys' fees at that time. Docket #7 at ¶ 30, in No. 13-21179 (Bankr. E.D. Pa.). In their March 11, 2014 combined motion, the petitioners state that they do not seek the release of the remaining $100,000 supersedeas funds securing the award of attorneys' fees, but they do seek leave to have that sum "determined if not released." Docket #56 at 11, in No. 11-5275 (E.D. Pa.). In concluding that the stay is annulled with respect to the Langlais proceeding, the Court does not at this time make any determination as to whether the remaining $100,000 supersedeas bond funds might be considered property of the debtors' estate in bankruptcy.
