UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT EASTERN DISTRICT OF PENNSYLVANIA

GARY A. TRABOSH, Plaintiff, v. NANCY A. BERRYHILL,<sup>1</sup> Commissioner of the Social Security Administration, Defendant.

No. 5:15-cv-00004

ORDER

The undersigned referred this action to United States Magistrate Judge Henry S. Perkin for a report and recommendation. On June 26, 2017, Judge Perkin issued a report and recommendation that Trabosh's appeal of the final decision of the Commissioner be denied. Twenty-eight days have passed, and no objections have been filed.<sup>2</sup>

This 24th day of July, 2017, having reviewed the report and recommendation,<sup>3</sup> it is ORDERED as follows:

- 1. The Report and Recommendation, ECF No. 21, is ADOPTED.
- 2. The relief sought by Plaintiff is DENIED.
- 3. The decision of the Commissioner is AFFIRMED.
- 4. The Clerk of Court shall close this case.

BY THE COURT:

/s/ Joseph F. Leeson, Jr.

JOSEPH F. LEESON, JR. United States District Judge

&lt;sup>3</sup> See Henderson v. Carlson, 812 F.2d 874, 878 (3d Cir. 1987) ("While [§ 636] may not require, in the absence of objections, the district court to review the magistrate's report before accepting it, we believe that the better practice is for the district judge to afford some level of review to dispositive legal issues raised by the report." (citation omitted)).
