JOSEPH F. LEESON, JR.
United States District Judge

² Rule 54(b) provides that “[w]hen an action presents more than one claim for relief—whether as a claim, counterclaim, crossclaim, or third-party claim—or when multiple parties are involved, the court may direct entry of a final judgment as to one or more, but fewer than all, claims or parties only if the court expressly determines that there is no just reason for delay. Otherwise, any order or other decision, however designated, that adjudicates fewer than all the claims or the rights and liabilities of fewer than all the parties does not end the action as to any of the claims or parties and may be revised at any time before the entry of a judgment adjudicating all the claims and all the parties’ rights and liabilities.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 54(b). See also Wyndham Hotels & Resorts, LLC v. Welcome Hotel Grp., LLC, No. 17-04065, 2020 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 223992, at *2 (D.N.J. Nov. 25, 2020) (internal citation omitted) (“To order final judgment, all of Plaintiff’s claims must be ‘either resolved or withdrawn.’”).
