MEMORANDUM

I. Introduction

Plaintiff, John McCarthy, a former federal inmate, initiated this action on February 23, 2017, while housed at the United States Penitentiary in Lewisburg, Pennsylvania.<sup>1</sup> (ECF No. 1, Compl.) Presently before the Court is McCarthy’s motion for leave to proceed in forma pauperis. (ECF No. 8).

For the reasons that follow, McCarthy’s motion will be denied without prejudice. McCarthy will have fourteen days to file a correct application to proceed in forma pauperis or pay the entire filing fee. His failure to do either will result in his action being dismissed without prejudice.

II. Discussion

A “prisoner” is defined in the statute as “any person incarcerated or detained in any facility who is accused of, convicted of, sentenced for, or adjudicated delinquent for, violations of criminal laws or the terms and conditions of parole . . .” 28 U.S.C. § 1915A(c) (emphasis added). If a plaintiff is a prisoner at the time of filing the complaint, the Prison Litigation Reform Act (PLRA) and its in forma pauperis statute applies. Ahmed v. Dragovich, 297 F.3d 201, 210 (3d Cir. 2002).

In this matter, McCarthy was erroneously sent a copy of an in forma pauperis application for a non-inmate. Because McCarthy was a prisoner when he filed his Complaint, the Clerk of Court shall be directed to furnish him with a blank copy of this Court's current standard prisoner in forma pauperis form. If Plaintiff seeks to proceed with this case in forma pauperis, he shall complete the form and return it to the Clerk of Court within fourteen days. He must also include a certified copy of his inmate trust fund account for the 6-month period immediately preceding the filing of the complaint. See 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a)(2). If McCarthy does not wish to proceed in form pauperis in this matter, he may forward the complete filing fee to the Clerk of Court within fourteen days. Failure to either submit a complete inmate in forma pauperis application or the complete filing fee within fourteen days will result in the dismissal of this action.
