Re: Reisinger v. City of Wilkes-Barre, et. al.
3:09-cv-210

Dear Don:

I am sending this letter to you in regard to the above-captioned case. As you may recall the last representative of my office that you spoke to related to the above case was my assistant, M.J.

Shortly after the last time that you spoke with her, she became seriously ill, was out for a couple of days, and required surgery. Due to the above loss in staff assistance last week, I am now undergoing a substantial scheduling backlog of various engagements. I have several deadlines that cannot be moved.

As a consequence of the above loss of staff assistance, I will now not be able to attend any of the depositions that we had scheduled for later this week. However, I will free up next Wednesday afternoon, June 23, 2010 and next Thursday afternoon, June 24, 2010, for depositions. Dawn and I can attend either of the above days. Also, we are in the process of contacting Ralph now to inquire as to which of the two above days, if any, would be best for him.

In closing, kindly contact me after you have had an opportunity to review this letter, to advise me in reference to the above. Best regards. I remain,

Very truly yours,
