ORDER OF COURT

AND NOW, this 23rd day of September, 2003, following a hearing on the Defendant's Motion for Post-Conviction Collateral Relief, and the Commonwealth moving to dismiss the petition as being untimely filed, the Court finds and ORDERS as follows:

1. At case No. 122 of 1999, Cr., the Defendant was sentenced on July 20, 1999. The Defendant took no appeal from this sentence nor filed any post-sentence motion.

2. At case No. 331 of 1999, Cr., the Defendant was sentenced on October 21, 1999. The Defendant took no appeal from such sentence nor filed any post-sentence motion.

3. Defendant's Motion for Post-Conviction Collateral Relief was filed June 25, 2003.

4. The Defendant has presented no evidence that the failure to raise any claim contained in the Motion for Post-Conviction Collateral Relief previously was the result of the interference by government officials with the presentation of the claim, nor that the facts upon which any claim therein is predicated was unknown to the Defendant and could not have been ascertained by the exercise of due diligence.

5. The Court finds that the Defendant has failed to file his Motion for Post-Conviction Collateral Relief within 1 year
