13. The United States District Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania shall have continuing jurisdiction over any breach of the provisions of this Consent Order and Judgment or any related dispute between the Parties, and such jurisdiction shall continue after the above-captioned action is dismissed pursuant to the provisions set forth herein.

14. In the event that Defendant Shore – and/or any person, corporation, entity, partnership, or venture of any kind over which he now has or may hereafter have direct or indirect managerial or ownership control as an officer, director, stockholder, member, manager, partner, investor, or otherwise – is found by the United States District Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania, or any other court of competent jurisdiction, to have breached one or more of the terms of this Consent Order and Judgment, Plaintiffs and/or their affiliates shall be entitled to recover from Defendant Shore any damages suffered as a result of each such breach or any unlawful conduct of Defendant Shore together with any and all attorney's fees and costs of any nature incurred in connection with any effort or proceeding to enforce Plaintiffs' and/or their affiliates' legal rights and/or the terms hereof. It is the Parties' intent that this Consent Order and Judgment benefit both Plaintiffs and their affiliates and be specifically enforceable by Plaintiffs and/or their affiliates, either jointly or severally.

15. - a. a minimum of $25,000 for each individual act of breach plus all attorney's fees and costs incurred by Plaintiffs in enforcing their rights in the case of the first such breach,
- b. a minimum of $50,000 for each individual act of breach plus all attorney's fees and costs incurred by Plaintiffs in enforcing their rights in the case of the second such breach, and
- c. a minimum of $75,000 for each individual act of breach plus all attorney's fees and costs incurred by Plaintiffs in enforcing their rights in the case of the third such breach and each subsequent breach thereafter.

16. Defendant Shore hereby acknowledges and agrees that the damages specified herein are reasonable and a good faith quantification of the damages that Plaintiffs and their affiliates will incur for each individual act of breach. Defendant Shore – and/or any person, corporation, entity, partnership, or venture of any kind over which he now has or may hereafter have direct or indirect managerial or ownership control as an officer, director, stockholder, member, manager, partner, investor, or otherwise – shall have a period of seven (7) calendar days following the receipt of any written notice to Defendant Shore of any asserted breach of this Consent Order and Judgment, which shall be provided by Plaintiffs or their affiliates, within which to fully and completely cure and correct any such breach. If such cure and correction is fully made to Plaintiffs’ or their affiliates’ satisfaction, the monetary damages, attorney’s fees, and costs provisions of paragraphs 14 and 15 hereof shall not apply. For purposes hereof notice shall be deemed received by Defendant Shore if sent by certified mail return receipt or overnight courier to Defendant Shore at the address immediately below his signature hereto or such other address as Defendant Shore shall provide in writing to Plaintiffs’ counsel and shall be deemed received on the date shown in the return receipt or in the overnight courier’s delivery records. If delivery is refused by Defendant Shore or is returned undeliverable by reason of a change of address for which Defendant Shore has not provided prior written notice to Plaintiffs’ counsel, Defendant Shore shall be deemed to have received notice on the date of attempted delivery and such attempted delivery shall be adequate notice for purposes hereof, fully provides Defendant Shore with reasonable and fair notice, and complies with and satisfies all applicable due process requirements. Service by Plaintiffs or their affiliates of any summons, complaint, or other pleading in any action or proceeding by Plaintiffs or their affiliates against Defendant Shore to enforce the terms and provisions hereof, including an action or proceeding on account of any breach by Defendant Shore, may be made by certified mail or overnight courier as provided above in this paragraph, and service shall be effective if made in accordance with this paragraph. Defendant Shore hereby waives any and all rights to personal service of any process of any summons, complaint, or other pleading in connection with any such action or proceeding.
