Knight v. Powers Doc. 32

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF SOUTH CAROLINA

Donnie Knight, Jr., #329438,) C/A No. 0:08-2030-HMH-PJG Plaintiff,
v.)) REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION
Larry W. Powers, Director of Spartanburg County Detention Center,) Defendant.)) _)

The plaintiff, Donnie Knight, Jr., proceeding pro se, brought this action seeking relief pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983. On September 15, 2008, the defendant filed a motion for summary judgment. By order of this court filed September 16, 2008, pursuant to Roseboro v. Garrison, 528 F.2d 309 (4th Cir. 1975), the plaintiff was advised of the dismissal and summary judgment procedures and the possible consequences if he failed to respond adequately. See Order, Docket Entry 20.

Notwithstanding the specific warning and instructions as set forth in the court's Roseboro order, the plaintiff failed to respond to the motion. As the plaintiff is proceeding pro se, the court filed a second order on November 17, 2008, advising plaintiff that it appeared to the court that he was not opposing the motion and wished to abandon this action, and giving the plaintiff an additional fifteen (15) days in which to file his response to the defendant's motion for summary judgment. See Order, Docket Entry 27. The plaintiff was specifically warned that if he failed to respond, this action would be recommended for dismissal with prejudice for failure to prosecute.

Davis v. Williams, 588 F.2d 69, 70 (4th Cir. 1978); Fed. R. Civ. P. 41(b). This order, which was mailed to the plaintiff, was returned to the Clerk of Court on November 21, 2008, as undeliverable by the United States Postal Service. The envelope states that the plaintiff was released and left no forwarding address. See Envelope, Docket Entry 30, Attachment 2.

The court notes that when the plaintiff filed this action, he was specifically instructed as follows:

You are ordered to always keep the Clerk of Court advised in writing if your address changes for any reason, so as to assure that orders or other matters that specify deadlines for you to meet will be received by you. If as a result of your failure to comply with this order, you fail meet a deadline set by this court, your case may be dismissed for violating this order. Therefore, if you have a change of address before this case is ended, you must comply with this order by immediately advising the Clerk of Court in writing of such change of address Your failure to do so will not be excused by the Court. (emphasis added).

See Order, Docket Entry 6. The plaintiff has failed to comply with this order, and as a result neither the court nor the defendants have any means of contacting him concerning his case.

Based on the foregoing, and the previous instructions and specific warning given to the plaintiff in the court's prior order, the court recommends that this action be dismissed with prejudice in accordance with Rule 41(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. The Clerk is directed to send this Report and Recommendation to the plaintiff at his last known address.

If the plaintiff notifies the court within the time set forth for filing objections to this Report and Recommendation that he wishes to continue with this case and provides a current address, the Clerk is directed to return this file to the undersigned for further handling. If, however, no objections are filed, the Clerk shall forward this Report and Recommendation to the District Judge for disposition.
