This matter comes before the court on the motion of Janet E. Rhodes, Esq., of Callison Tighe & Robinson, LLC, to be relieved as counsel for Shannon D. Puckett ("Plaintiff"). [ECF No. 16]. Ms. Rhodes indicates that she and her staff have tried unsuccessfully on many occasions to contact Plaintiff via email, U.S. mail, and telephone, to participate in responding to discovery requests. Despite being informed by Ms. Rhodes by letter dated November 18, 2015, that if Plaintiff did not contact her office, Ms. Rhodes would be forced to file to be relieved as her counsel, Plaintiff failed to contact her. Id. Ms. Rhodes provided a copy of the motion to withdraw as counsel, filed on December 10, 2015, to Plaintiff. Id. In accordance with Local Civ. Rule 83.I.07(B), the motion also informs Plaintiff that she may file an objection to the motion within 17 days. Id. That time period has now passed, and Plaintiff did not file an objection to the motion. Therefore, the court grants Ms. Rhodes's motion to withdraw.

The court directs Plaintiff to notify the court by February 3, 2016, of the identity of the new attorney(s) she has retained to represent her in this case or, alternatively, of her desire to proceed with this litigation pro se, i.e., without an attorney. If Plaintiff does not wish to continue this lawsuit, she may request that the court dismiss the case in its entirety. To this end, Plaintiff shall, by February 3, 2016, complete the attached notice and mail it to the Clerk of Court at the address indicated. If Plaintiff fails to file the attached letter with the Clerk within the time prescribed, the court will consider her as proceeding pro se.

Plaintiff is specifically advised that, if no new attorney is obtained to represent her interests, the court will expect this litigation to be conducted in accordance with all provisions of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and that the court is unable to provide her with legal advice. Failure to comply with court rules could have serious consequences including, but not limited to, striking her claims and dismissing the case against the Chester County Sheriff's Office.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
